[Note: The version of the Act as at 31 December 2000 was revised and consolidated by the Law Reform Commission of Uganda. All subsequent amendments have been researched and applied by Laws.Africa for ULII.]

An Act to provide for the establishment of the Management Training and Advisory Centre, to make provision for its constitution and management and for other matters related thereto.

Interpretation

1. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "appointed member" means a member of the council who is appointed under section 7 or who becomes a member of the council by virtue of his or her appointment as chairperson of the council under section 11\(1\);
- (b) "centre" means the Management Training and Advisory Centre established under section 2;
- (c) "chairperson" means the chairperson of the council;
- (d) "council" means the Council of the Management Training and Advisory Centre appointed by the Minister under section 7;
- (e) "financial year" means a period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of December in each year;
- (f) "functions" includes powers and duties;
- (g) "Minister" means the Minister to whom functions under this Act are assigned;
- (h) "secretary" means the secretary of the council.

Establishment, objects and functions of the advisory centre

2. Establishment and incorporation of the centre

There is established a centre to be called the Management Training and Advisory Centre which shall, in that name, be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue or be sued in its corporate name and, subject to this Act, may do and suffer all such other acts and things as bodies corporate may lawfully do and suffer.

3. Objects of the centre

The objects for which the centre is established are—

- (a) to assist Government departments and public and private institutions with advisory and training services to be given to their personnel concerned with the promotion and development of industry and indigenous entrepreneurship with a view to enabling those personnel to advise, assist and train Ugandan entrepreneurs throughout the country;

- (b) to assist industry and other economic sectors, including public services and utilities, in introducing or improving management practices, techniques and methods, with a view to raising their productivity;
- (c) to assist existing and new enterprises in studying designs of new products, models and devices;
- (d) to prepare citizens of Uganda for managerial, functional and supervisory posts in existing and new industries and business enterprises;
- (e) to help citizens of Uganda to become entrepreneurs, by providing them with advisory services and instruction in simple management practices, particularly management, accounting and marketing, technological guidance and practical demonstrations;
- (f) to raise the standard of skill of workers employed in industry through accelerated training, upgrading and in-plant training;
- (g) to organise and conduct training courses for semiskilled and skilled workers, foremen, supervisors and technicians, including maintenance workers, on methods and techniques of tool operation as suitable for the equipment and work conditions in the country.

4. Functions and powers of the centre

The centre may do all such things as are calculated to facilitate, or as are incidental or conducive to, the better carrying out of its functions and may, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing—

- (a) acquire, take on lease, purchase, hold and enjoy any property and sell, let or otherwise dispose of the property;
- (b) aid the promotion of any citizen of Uganda in trade or business;
- (c) enter into agreement with any citizen of Uganda for the establishment, promotion or financing of any business or undertaking;
- (d) build or purchase business premises in furtherance of its objectives;
- (e) collect, collate and disseminate specific technical information regarding equipment, machinery, tools, methods, practices and techniques of specific interest to entrepreneurs;
- (f) subject to section 22, borrow or otherwise raise money on such security as may be necessary and, for that purpose, charge all or any of the property of the centre;
- (g) found scholarships, make research grants or otherwise give financial or other assistance to citizens of Uganda engaged in study or research into any matter relating to productivity of industry;
- (h) hold classes, demonstrations, lectures or any other form of instructional or promotional activity and charge any fees for them;
- (i) publish periodicals, booklets or other written material and distribute them by sale or by loan, hire or otherwise with or without charge as the council thinks fit.

5. Seal of the centre

- (1) The seal of the centre shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairperson or of any other two members of the council authorised by resolution of the council either generally or specially to act in that behalf.
- (2) The signature of the chairperson or other members of the council shall be independent of the signing by any other person as witness.

- (3) A certificate signed by the chairperson of the council that any instrument purporting to be made or issued by or on behalf of the centre was so made or issued shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- (4) Every document purporting—
  - (a) to be an instrument made or issued by or on behalf of the centre and to be sealed with the seal of the centre authenticated in the manner provided by subsection (1) or to be signed or executed by the chairperson or any other person authorised by the council to act in that behalf; or
  - (b) to be a certificate such as is mentioned in subsection (3),shall be received in evidence and be deemed without further proof to be so made or issued or to be such a certificate, unless the contrary is shown.

6. Custody of the seal

The common seal of the centre shall be kept in the custody of a person appointed by the council, and shall not be used or affixed to any instrument except in pursuance of a resolution duly adopted by the council and in the presence of at least two members of the council, and such members shall sign every instrument to which the common seal of the centre is so affixed in their presence.

The council

7. Membership of the council

The governing body of the centre shall be a council consisting of—

- (a) the following ex officio members—
  - (i) the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for commerce and industry or his or her representative;
  - (ii) the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for education or his or her representative; and
  - (iii) the Permanent Secretary/labour commissioner of the Ministry responsible for labour matters or his or her representative; and
- (b) not more than eight and not less than four appointed members including the chairperson whose appointments shall be notified in the Gazette, of whom—
  - (i) two members shall be appointed by the Minister as representatives of employers after consultation with the employers federation;
  - (ii) two members shall be appointed by the Minister as representatives of employees after consultation with the trade unions; and
  - (iii) not more than three other members shall be appointed by the Minister after consultation with institutions directly or indirectly concerned with industry.

8. Functions of the council

- (1) The council shall be charged with the administration and management policy of the centre and shall be responsible to see that the same is carried out by the centre.
- (2) The council, in the performance of its functions under this Act, shall comply with such directions of a general character as may be given to it by the Minister.

- (3) The executive authority of the council to control and manage the centre shall, subject to the general or specific directions given to the director of the centre by the council, be under the control and management of the director.

9. Disqualifications for membership of the council

- (1) No person shall be appointed a member of the council who—
  - (a) is not a person of experience in financial affairs, business, administration or professional occupation;
  - (b) is a paid employee of the centre;
  - (c) is an insolvent or bankrupt person;
  - (d) is not resident in Uganda; or
  - (e) has been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty.
- (2) The Minister may at any time remove an appointed member from the council if he or she is satisfied that that member—
  - (a) has become bankrupt or made an arrangement with his or her creditors;
  - (b) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness;
  - (c) has been absent from more than six consecutive meetings of the council otherwise than on any reason approved by the council;
  - (d) has been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty; or
  - (e) is otherwise unable or is, in the opinion of the Minister, unfit to discharge the functions of a member or is unsuitable to continue as a member.

10. Filling of vacancy

- (1) If any appointed member of the council is, without the consent of the council, absent from more than six consecutive meetings of the council, or absent from Uganda for more than twelve months, he or she shall be deemed to have resigned from the council.
- (2) If any vacancy occurs on the council by death, resignation, effluxion of time or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.
- (3) The member appointed by the Minister under subsection (2) shall be a person representing the same interests as the member in whose place he or she has been appointed.

11. Chairperson of the council

- (1) Subject to section 9, the Minister may in writing under his or her hand appoint any person to be chairperson of the council; and where the person appointed chairperson of the council is not a member of the council, then that person shall, on his or her appointment, be a member of the council.
- (2) The chairperson shall hold and vacate office as such in accordance with the terms of his or her appointment.
- (3) If the chairperson, for some reason, ceases to be chairperson, he or she shall, unless the Minister shall otherwise direct, cease to be a member of the council.

12. Term of office of members of the council

- (1) An appointed member of the council shall hold office for a period of two years.

- (2) An appointed member of the council may, by notice in writing under his or her hand addressed to the Minister, resign his or her membership, and the chairperson may by the like notice resign his or her office as such.
- (3) A person who ceases to be an appointed member or ceases to be chairperson shall be eligible for reappointment.
- (4) If any appointed member of the council, other than the chairperson, is for any other reason unable to exercise the powers or perform the duties of his or her office, the Minister may, subject to section 7, appoint another person to be a temporary member of the council during the absence or incapacity of that member.
- (5) If any appointed member of the council is absent from Uganda for any period in excess of six weeks, the Minister may, subject to section 7, at the request of the chairperson, appoint a member in substitution for the member who is absent from Uganda; any member so appointed shall hold office until the member in whose place he or she has been appointed returns to Uganda.

13. Meetings of the council

- (1) The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the council; and where he or she is absent from any meeting, a member of the council nominated by the chairperson, or where no member is nominated by the chairperson, such person as the members present may elect, shall preside at the meeting of the council.
- (2) The chairperson shall have no vote at meetings of the council except in the case of an equality of votes when he or she shall have a casting vote.
- (3) Meetings of the council shall be held at intervals of not less than three months at such place and time as the chairperson may, from time to time, appoint.
- (4) The chairperson shall, if requested by notice in writing signed by not fewer than three members of the council, convene a meeting of the council within fourteen days beginning with the date when he or she received that notice.
- (5) At all meetings of the council four members including the chairperson shall constitute a quorum.
- (6) Questions proposed or arising at any meeting of the council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting on the question.
- (7) Subject to this Act, the council may regulate its own procedure, including the manner in which matters subject to the determination of the council are to be determined by or on behalf of the council.
- (8) The chairperson may invite any person not a member of the council to attend and to speak upon any relevant matter at any meeting of the council, but no such person shall vote upon any matter before the council.
- (9) Notice of the time, place and agenda of every meeting of the council shall be served by or on behalf of the secretary on every member of the council either personally or by leaving it at his or her usual place of residence or at his or her business address; in the case of ordinary meetings not less than seven days' notice before the meeting, and in the case of special meetings not less than twenty-four hours before the meeting, shall be given; but the accidental omission to serve such notice on any member of the council shall not affect the validity of any meeting.
- (10) No business shall be transacted at a meeting of the council other than that specified in the agenda except any matter which the chairperson considers urgent or which the council resolves to deal with as urgent.
- (11) A decision of the majority of the members present and voting at a meeting of the council shall be deemed to be the decision of the council.

- (12) Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the council shall be regularly entered in a book to be kept for the purpose by the secretary; and the minutes shall be confirmed at the next meeting; and when the minutes are confirmed, they shall be signed by the chairperson in the presence of the members of the council.
- (13) When a question before the council has been disposed of, it shall not be competent for any member without special leave of the chairperson to raise a question substantially identical with that question within three months.

14. Transaction of business by circulation of papers

The council may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers; and a resolution in writing approved in writing by all the members of the council shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the council by votes of the members so approving the resolution.

15. Validity of proceedings

The validity of any proceeding of the council shall not be affected by any defect in the appointment of any member or by the absence of any member from the meeting at which the proceeding occurred or by any vacancy among the members of the council.

16. Payment of allowances to members

The centre may pay to the members of the council, other than the ex officio members, such allowances as may be determined by the council with the prior approval of the Minister.

17. Byelaws of the centre

- (1) The centre may, with the approval of the Minister, make byelaws respecting the management and conduct of the centre or any matter connected with the functions or the proper exercise, discharge or performances by the council of its functions under this Act, and the byelaws may provide for—
  - (a) a budgetary control system for cash flow together with control by way of a cost control system showing the profitability of the centre which control system may be used by the officers of the centre so as constantly to review the financial trend of the centre's activities;
  - (b) books of account to be kept by the centre;
  - (c) the salary structure of officers, servants and employees of the centre;
  - (d) appointments, discipline and dismissal of officers, servants and employees of the centre;
  - (e) the provision of superannuation, pensions, gratuities and other such payments for retirement;
  - (f) rules for contributory arrangements to any fund by the employees of the centre.
- (2) Notwithstanding the Interpretation Act, unless the Minister shall otherwise direct, it shall not be necessary to publish by statutory instrument any byelaws made under this section, but those byelaws may be published in such manner as the council, with the approval of the Minister, sees fit.

18. Establishment of committees

- (1) The council may—
  - (a) appoint committees from among its members and may refer to any such committee any matter for investigation, and report to the council;
  - (b) co-opt any person on any committee appointed under this section.

- (2) The council may pay to the members of any committee, other than the ex officio members, such travelling, subsistence and other allowances and to the chairperson such remuneration as the council may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.
- (3) Subject to any directions of the council, the committee appointed under this section may regulate its own procedure and fix a quorum for its proceedings.

Staff

19. Appointment of staff

- (1) The council, with the approval of the Minister, may appoint a director of the centre to be the chief executive officer of the centre for such period and on such terms and conditions as the council may determine.
- (2) The council may appoint a secretary, officers, servants and agents of the centre as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of the functions of the centre.
- (3) The council may employ any professional person to advise the centre on any point arising out of or in connection with any of the functions of the centre.
