(gg) “voters roll” means the voters roll for any constituency or parish prepared and maintained under the Electoral Commission Act.

(2) The Electoral Commission Act shall be construed as one with this Act.

PART II—QUALIFICATIONS FOR ELECTION AS PRESIDENT AND MODE OF ELECTION.

2. Qualifications for candidates.

(1) A person is not qualified for election as President unless that person is—

- (a) a citizen of Uganda by birth;
- (b) not less than thirty-five years and not more than seventy-five years of age; and
- (c) a person qualified to be a member of Parliament.

(2) The commission shall require such evidence as it thinks necessary of the qualifications specified in subsection (1).

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c), a person is qualified to be a member of Parliament if that person—

- (a) is a citizen of Uganda;
- (b) is a registered voter; and
- (c) has completed a minimum formal education of Advanced Level standard or its equivalent.

(4) A person is not qualified for election as a member of Parliament if that person—

- (a) is of unsound mind;
- (b) is holding or acting in an office the functions of which involve a responsibility for or in connection with the conduct of an election;
- (c) is a traditional or cultural leader as defined in article 246(6) of the Constitution;
- (d) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Uganda and has not been discharged; or
- (e) is under a sentence of death or a sentence of imprisonment exceeding nine months imposed by any competent court without the option of a fine.

(5) A person elected President when he or she is a member of a local government council or holds a public office shall resign the office before assuming the office of President.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c), a person shall be taken to be qualified under that paragraph only if he or she holds a certificate issued to him or her by the UNEB in the form specified in the Second Schedule to this Act, notice of which has been published in the Gazette.

(7) UNEB shall, for purposes of subsection (6), after informing the Minister responsible for education, publish from time to time, notice of the list of qualifications considered by it to be equivalent to Advanced Level of formal education.

(8) A certificate issued by UNEB under any other enactment, to the same effect as a certificate required to be obtained under subsection (6) and notice of which is published in the Gazette, shall be sufficient for the purposes of subsection (3)(c).

(9) A certificate issued by UNEB under this section shall be sufficient in respect of any election for which the same qualification is required.

(10) A person aggrieved by the grant or refusal to grant a certificate under subsection (6) is entitled to appeal to the High Court against the grant or refusal, and the High Court may confirm, modify or reverse the decision of UNEB.

(11) The Chief Justice may, in consultation with the Attorney General, make rules to regulate the procedure for appeals under subsection (10) and may for that purpose apply, with or without modifications, the rules of court applicable to civil proceedings in the High Court.

(12) The person to whom a certificate is issued under this section shall pay to UNEB a prescribed fee for the certificate and shall be responsible for meeting the cost of the publication of notice of the certificate in the Gazette.

3. Aspirant consultations.

(1) An aspirant may consult in preparation for his or her nomination as a presidential candidate within twelve months before the nomination date.

(2) While consulting under subsection (1), a presidential aspirant may—

- (a) carry out nationwide consultations;
- (b) prepare his or her manifesto and other campaign materials;
- (c) raise funds for his or her campaign through lawful means;
- (d) convene meetings of national delegates.

(3) While consulting, the aspirant shall introduce himself or herself to the Electoral Commission and notify the relevant local council and the police of the area he or she goes to.

4. Election of the President.

(1) The election of the President shall be by universal adult suffrage through a secret ballot using one ballot box for all candidates at each polling station.

(2) The election of the President shall be held during the first thirty days of the last ninety days before the expiration of the term of the President, except in the case of—

- (a) an election held under article 104(6) of the Constitution;
- (b) an election held under article 109(2) of the Constitution; and
- (c) an election necessitated by the fact that a normal presidential election could not be held as a result of the existence of a state of war or a state of emergency, in which case, the election shall be held within the period prescribed in subsection (3).

(3) For the purposes of article 103(3)(d) of the Constitution, where a normal presidential election cannot be held as a result of the existence of a state of war or a state of emergency, the election shall be held within such period as Parliament may, on the recommendation of the commission, by resolution determine, or within sixty days after the end of the state of war or the end of the state of emergency, whichever first occurs.

PART III—INFORMATION TO RETURNING OFFICERS AND SECRECY.

5. Information to be given to returning officers.

(1) Whenever it is considered necessary and, in any case, immediately after the date of an election is appointed, the commission shall transmit to every returning officer—

- (a) sufficient copies of this Act, and such instructions prepared by the commission, as are required for the proper conduct of an election by the returning officer and to enable the returning officer to supply to each election officer a copy of those instructions as each election officer may need;
- (b) copies of the voters roll for each polling station within the electoral district;
- (c) sufficient blank report books and other election materials; and
- (d) sufficient funds to cover all the expenses to be incurred by the returning officer in carrying out the electoral process.

(2) The commission shall also transmit to each returning officer, as soon as practicable after nomination days, a sufficient number of ballot papers for each constituency within the electoral district of the returning officer.

6. Secrecy required of election officers and others.

(1) Every candidate, election officer, clerk, candidate's agent or other person in attendance at a polling station during the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and no candidate, officer, clerk, candidate's agent or other person shall—

- (a) at the polling station, interfere with, or attempt to interfere with, a voter when marking the ballot paper or otherwise attempt to obtain information with respect to the candidate for whom any voter is about to vote or has voted;
- (b) at any time communicate any information with respect to the manner in which any ballot paper has been marked in his or her presence in the polling station;
- (c) at any time or place, directly or indirectly, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to show his or her ballot paper after he or she has marked it, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom the voter has cast his or her vote;
- (d) at a polling station, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to vote for a person other than the person of the voter's choice;
- (e) at any time, communicate to any person any information obtained at a polling station with respect to the candidate for whom any voter at the polling station is about to vote or has voted; or
- (f) at the counting of the votes, attempt to obtain any information or communicate any information obtained at the counting with respect to the candidate for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.

(2) No candidate, election officer, candidate's agent or other person on duty at a polling station shall, except for a purpose authorised by law, communicate to any person any information as to—

- (a) the name of a voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station; or
- (b) the number on the voters register of a voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station.

(3) A person who has undertaken under section 36 to assist a blind, illiterate or other voter with a disability to vote shall not communicate at any time to another person information as to the candidate for whom the assisted voter intends to vote or has voted, or as to the number, if any, on the ballot paper given for the use of that voter.

(4) A person shall, before assuming the duties of election officer, take and subscribe the oath in Form EO specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both.

(6) Any election officer who, contrary to the oath taken under subsection (4), reveals to any person any confidential matter that has come to his or her knowledge or notice as a result of his or her appointment commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both.

PART IV—NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR ELECTION AS PRESIDENT.

7. Appointment of nomination days.

(1) The commission shall issue a notice in the Gazette appointing two days during which the nomination of candidates is to take place indicating—

- (a) the places and times fixed for the nomination of candidates; and
- (b) the hours of each nomination day during which nominations are to take place.

(2) Every place fixed under subsection (1)(a) for the nomination of candidates shall be a public place, including a courthouse, city or town hall, community centre or other public or private building in a central place.

(3) The hours to be indicated in accordance with subsection (1)(b) shall be from ten o'clock in the forenoon to four o'clock in the afternoon on each nomination day.

8. Procedure of nomination.

(1) A person shall not be a candidate in a presidential election unless—

- (a) that person submits to the commission on or before the day appointed as nomination day in relation to the election a document, in this Act referred to as a nomination paper, in the form specified in the Third Schedule to this Act, which is signed by that person, nominating him or her as a candidate; and
- (b) the nomination is supported by one hundred voters in each of at least two-thirds of all the districts in Uganda.

(2) A candidate shall be proposed and seconded in the manner specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(3) Each candidate shall attach to his or her nomination paper a list of names of the registered voters required under subsection (1)(b); and each of those registered voters shall append to that list his or her name, signature, physical address and voter registration number as specified in the Third Schedule.

(4) A person shall not subscribe to more than one nomination paper, and no person shall give his or her support under subsection (3) to more than one candidate.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

(6) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a declaration in the form specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act;

- (b) a nonrefundable fee of four hundred currency points payable to the Uganda Administration in cash or bank draft; and
- (c) three postcard-size copies of a recent photograph of the proposed candidate; except that professional or occupational attire shall not be worn by the candidate in the photograph.

(7) No person is duly nominated as a candidate unless he or she has complied with subsection (6).

(8) A returning officer shall not refuse to accept any nomination paper—

- (a) by reason of an alleged ineligibility of the candidate sought to be nominated, unless the ground for the alleged ineligibility appears on the nomination paper;
- (b) solely on account of any minor variation between the name of any person as it appears on the nomination paper and as it appears on the voters roll, if the returning officer is reasonably satisfied that the variation is due to an error; or
- (c) on account of any other imperfection in the nomination paper if the returning officer is satisfied that there has been substantial compliance with this Act.

(9) A nomination paper which a returning officer has refused to accept for filing may be replaced by another nomination paper or may be corrected; except that a new or corrected nomination paper shall be filed with the returning officer not later than the time for the closure of nominations specified in section 7.

(10) The returning officer shall, immediately after the expiry of the nomination time, announce the name of every candidate who has been duly nominated.

(11) For the purposes of the nomination of candidates for a presidential election, the returning officer shall be the chairperson of the commission or a person designated in writing by the commission.

9. Factors which may invalidate a nomination.

A person shall not be regarded as duly nominated and the nomination paper of any person shall be regarded as void if—

- (a) the person's nomination paper was not signed and seconded in

- accordance with section 8(1) and (2);
- (b) the nomination paper of the person was not accompanied by the list of names of registered voters as required by section 8(1) and (3);
- (c) the person has not complied with section 8(6); or
- (d) the person seeking nomination was not qualified for election under section 2.

10. Payment of the deposit.

The deposit payable under section 8 shall be received by the commission, which shall issue a general receipt in respect of the deposit.

11. Inspection of nomination papers and lodging of complaints.

Any registered voter may—

- (a) during office hours on the nomination day, at the office of the returning officer or other place determined by the commission, inspect any nomination paper filed with the returning officer;
- (b) after the closure of the nomination time and during such period as may be prescribed, inspect any nomination paper in respect of a candidate at such time and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed; and may lodge any complaint with the returning officer or the commission in relation to any nomination in respect of a candidate challenging the qualifications of any person nominated.

12. Right to complain to the commission upon rejection of nomination paper.

Where a nomination paper of a person has been rejected or has been regarded as void by virtue of section 9—

- (a) the returning officer shall immediately notify the person of the decision giving reasons for the decision; and
- (b) the person shall have the right to complain against the decision to the commission which may confirm or reverse the decision of the returning officer.

13. Commission to appoint polling day and tallying places.

- (1) The commission shall, within fourteen days after nomination days, by notice in the Gazette, appoint—

- (a) a day to be known as polling day; and
- (b) the time and the place where each returning officer will tally the number of votes given to each candidate at each polling station.

(2) The polling day appointed under subsection (1) shall, subject to the Constitution, be not later than ninety days after nomination days.

(3) Where nomination days have been appointed for a parliamentary election before the date on which a repeat presidential election is required to be held under the Constitution and this Act, the commission shall, whether or not a polling day has been appointed for a parliamentary election, postpone the parliamentary election and appoint a new polling day for the purpose so that all steps shall be taken for completing the presidential election before the date of the parliamentary election.

(4) At least fourteen days before polling day, each returning officer shall—

- (a) fix at his or her office within the district and in each constituency a list of the names of all the presiding officers and polling assistants appointed under the Electoral Commission Act for each polling station in the electoral district, with the names and numbers of their respective polling stations; and
- (b) permit free access to and afford full opportunity for the inspection of the list by the candidates or their agents and any other interested persons during normal working hours.

(5) The time to be indicated under subsection (1)(b) as the time when the returning officer will tally the votes given to the several candidates shall, at a presidential election, be not later than forty-eight hours immediately following polling day.

14. Withdrawal of candidates.

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a duly nominated candidate for election as President may withdraw his or her nomination at any time before polling day or the first polling day, as the case may be, in the election for which the person is standing as a candidate.

(2) A withdrawal of a candidate under subsection (1) shall be effected by means of a written notification to the commission or the returning officer and shall be signed by the candidate personally, and the candidate's signature shall be witnessed by the signatures of two registered voters.

(3) A candidate who withdraws his or her nomination under subsection (1) within thirty days of his or her nomination shall refund the funds received under section 19.

(4) Any vote cast on polling day for a candidate who has withdrawn his or her nomination shall be invalid.

(5) Where a candidate withdraws after nomination day or after the ballots are printed, the commission or the returning officer shall—

- (a) in writing, give notice in the Gazette of the fact of withdrawal;
- (b) if the time permits, print a notice of the withdrawal and distribute it to each presiding officer.

(6) Where a candidate withdraws under this section, each presiding officer shall, on polling day—

- (a) post a notice of the withdrawal in a conspicuous place in the polling station; and
- (b) when delivering a ballot paper to each voter, verbally inform the voter of the withdrawal.

15. Where a candidate dies, etc.

(1) Where in a presidential election, after the close of nominations and before the closing of polls, a candidate dies, the commission shall fix fresh nomination days for giving such time as it thinks reasonable for enabling a new or new candidates to be nominated.

(2) Where fresh nomination days are fixed under subsection (1), the remaining candidate previously validly nominated shall not be required to be renominated.

(3) Where fresh nomination days are fixed under subsection (1), the commission shall, where necessary, postpone the election to a convenient date.

(4) An election arising out of a postponement under subsection (1) shall be conducted in accordance with this Act.

(5) Where a candidate ceases to be a candidate otherwise than by reason of his or her death after the close of nominations and before the closing of polls, no fresh nominations shall be carried out by reason of his or her ceasing to be a candidate.

16. Declaration of unopposed candidate elected.

(1) Where a candidate at the time of the close of nominations is the sole candidate nominated, the commission shall publish and declare under its seal, within forty-eight hours from the close of nominations, that that candidate is elected unopposed with effect from the date fixed for the poll under section 13.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) shall be in Form A specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act.

17. False declarations.

A person who makes a declaration under section 8(6)(a) which that person knows to be false in a material particular or has no reasonable ground to believe to be true commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

PART V—CAMPAIGNING.

18. Time and manner of campaigns; candidates meetings programme.

(1) Subject to the Constitution and this Act, the commission may determine the manner and the period during which campaigns shall take place giving at least one day in each district and shall publish that information in the Gazette and forward a copy to each returning officer.

(2) Subject to article 269 of the Constitution, every candidate may hold individual public campaign meetings in any part of Uganda in accordance with any existing law.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a candidate's agent may carry on campaign meetings on behalf of the candidate and otherwise carry on any campaign which the candidate is allowed to do under this Act.

(4) The commission may, after consultation with all the candidates, organise one or more joint candidates campaign meetings for those candidates who consent to such a meeting.

(5) A candidate or a candidate's agent authorised in writing by the candidate to do so may hold a consultative meeting with the candidate's campaign agents for the purposes of planning and organising the candidate's election campaign.

(6) A candidate shall not hold any public campaign meeting under subsection (2) except in accordance with a programme of meetings submitted by the candidate to the commission.

19. Security, protection and facilitation of candidates.

(1) The commission shall ensure that the relevant organs of the State provide, during the entire campaign period—

- (a) protection of each candidate; and
- (b) adequate security at all meetings of candidates.

(2) The commission shall offer such facilities and funds to candidates as shall be approved by Parliament, to be used exclusively for election purposes.

(3) Subject to this section, a candidate or a candidate's agent may raise additional assistance for the candidate's campaign through lawful means.

(4) A candidate or a candidate's agent shall not obtain, solicit or receive any financial or any other assistance for the purpose of the candidate's campaign, from any foreign government, institution, body or person which or who has or have demonstrated an intention to overthrow the legally established Government of Uganda, or to endanger the security of Uganda.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Government shall lay before Parliament the necessary information as to the prohibited foreign governments, institutions, bodies or persons, at least three months before the nomination day.

(6) Every candidate shall maintain a record of all assistance obtained under this section.

- (7) Each candidate shall, within thirty days after the election—
  - (a) account to the commission for the facilitation given to him or her under subsection (2);
  - (b) submit a return to the commission disclosing all assistance obtained by the candidate from any source.

- (8) A candidate or a candidate's agent who contravenes subsection (4) or a candidate who—
  - (a) contravenes subsection (6) or (7); or
  - (b) for the purposes of subsection (7), makes a statement which he or she knows to be false in any material particular,commits an offence.

- (9) A person who commits an offence under subsection (8) is liable on conviction—
  - (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (4), to a fine not exceeding two hundred currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding five years or to both; and
  - (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding one hundred and twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both.

20. Use of Government resources.

- (1) Except as authorised under this Act, or otherwise authorised by law, no candidate shall use Government resources for the purpose of campaigning for election.

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a candidate who holds the office of President may continue to use Government facilities during the campaign, but shall use only those Government facilities which are attached to and utilised by the holder of that office.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Minister in charge of public service shall lay before Parliament those Government facilities which are attached to and utilised by the President.

- (4) A person holding a public office who wishes to be a candidate shall apply for leave of absence at least sixty days before the commencement of nomination day or days.

(5) Where a person holding a public office is a candidate, he or she shall, before proceeding on leave, relinquish any vehicle or office equipment in his or her custody belonging to his or her employer.

(6) For the purposes of enforcing this section, the commission shall, by writing, require any candidate to state in writing the facilities attached to any office held by that person to which this section applies or any equipment normally in his or her custody by virtue of that office; and the candidate shall comply with that requirement.

(7) Every employer to whom subsection (4) relates shall, upon receiving an application by an employee, grant to the employee leave of absence with pay, or where the employee has not earned leave, without pay, to seek nomination as a candidate and to be a candidate for election, and for such period as may be requested by the employee.

(8) In this section, “public office” and “public officer” have the meanings assigned to them by article 257 of the Constitution; and “public officer” shall, for the avoidance of doubt, include an employee of any commission established by the Constitution.

(9) This section applies, with the necessary modifications, to an employee of a statutory corporation or of a company in which the Government owns a controlling interest as it applies to a public officer.

21. Protection and immunity of candidates.

(1) During the campaign period, every public officer and public authority and public institution shall give equal treatment to all candidates and their agents.

(2) Subject to the Constitution and any other law, every candidate shall enjoy complete and unhindered freedom of expression and access to information in the exercise of the right to campaign under this Act.

(3) The commission may issue guidelines to be complied with by every candidate while conducting his or her campaign for the election under this Act.

22. Rights of candidates.

(1) All presidential candidates shall be given equal treatment by the State-owned media to present their programmes to the people.

(2) Subject to any other law, during the campaign period any candidate may, either alone or in common with others, publish campaign materials in the form of books, booklets, pamphlets, leaflets, magazines, newspapers or posters intended to solicit votes from voters but shall, in any such publication, specify particulars to identify the candidate or candidates concerned.

(3) No person shall, during the campaign period, print, publish or distribute a newspaper, circular or pamphlet containing an article, report, letter or other matter commenting on any issue relating to the election unless the author's name and address, or the authors' names and addresses, as the case may be, are set out at the end of the article, report, letter or other matter or, where part only of the article, report, letter or matter appears in any issue of a newspaper, circular, pamphlet, letter or matter at the end of that part.

(4) Subject to this section, a candidate may use electronic media for his or her campaign.

(5) No candidate or agent of a candidate or any other person shall, during the campaign period, use electronic media to do any of the following acts against a candidate or agent of a candidate—

- (a) make statements which are known by the maker to be false or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether they are true or false;
- (b) make malicious statements;
- (c) make statements containing sectarian words or allusions;
- (d) make abusive or insulting or derogatory statements;
- (e) make exaggerations or use caricatures of the candidate, or his or her agent using words of ridicule;
- (f) use derisive or mudslinging words against a candidate or his or her agent;
- (g) juxtapose words or statements with any of the effects described in the paragraphs (a) through (f);
- (h) use songs, poems and images with any of the effects described in paragraphs (a) through (g).

(6) The proprietor or operator of an electronic media shall not use the media or allow it to be used to do any of the acts prohibited in subsection (5).

(7) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (3), to a fine not exceeding forty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both; and
- (b) in any other case to a fine not exceeding eighty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

(8) In this section, “electronic media” includes television, radio, internet and email.

23. Nonpartisan, nonsectarian campaign.

(1) No person shall use or attempt to use—

- (a) while the movement political system is in force, any political party colour, or symbol of any political party; or
- (b) any tribal or religious affiliation or any other sectarian ground, as a basis for the candidature of any person for election or in support of that person’s campaign.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both.

24. Interference with electioneering activities of other persons.

A person who, before or during an election for the purpose of effecting or preventing the election of a candidate either directly or indirectly—

- (a) by words, whether spoken or written, song, sign or any other representation, or in any manner seeks to excite or promote disharmony, enmity or hatred against another person on grounds of sex, race, colour, ethnic origin, tribe, birth, creed or religion;
- (b) organises a group of persons with the intention of training the group in the use of force, violence, abusive, insulting, corrupt or vituperative songs or language calculated to malign, disparage, condemn, insult or abuse another person or candidate or with a view to causing disharmony or a breach of the peace or to disturb public tranquillity so as to gain unfair advantage in the election over that other person or candidate;

- (c) obstructs or interferes or attempts to obstruct or interfere with the free exercise of the franchise of a voter or compels or attempts to compel a voter to vote or to refrain from voting;
- (d) compels or attempts to compel a candidate to withdraw his or her candidature;
- (e) in any manner threatens any candidate or voter with injury or harm of any kind; or
- (f) induces or attempts to induce any candidate or voter to fear or believe that he or she will suffer illness or will become an object of divine, spiritual or fetish displeasure or censure, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding eighty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

25. Prohibition of incitement to public disorder.

(1) No person shall during campaigning use any language which is defamatory or which constitutes incitement to public disorder, hatred or violence.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding eighty currency points or to two years imprisonment or to both.

PART VI—VOTING AND VOTING PROCEDURE.

26. Distribution of election materials.

Within forty-eight hours before polling day, every returning officer shall furnish each presiding officer in the district with—

- (a) a sufficient number of ballot papers to cover the number of voters likely to vote at the polling station for which the presiding officer is responsible;
- (b) a statement showing the number of ballot papers so supplied with the serial numbers indicated in the statement; and
- (c) other materials necessary for voters to mark the ballot papers and complete the voting process.

27. Publication of polling stations and candidates.

- (1) The commission shall, by notice in the Gazette, publish—

- (a) a list of the polling stations in each constituency at least fourteen days before nomination; and
- (b) a list of the names of the candidates nominated in alphabetical order with surnames first.

(2) The commission shall also forward each list referred to in subsection (1) to all returning officers; and the returning officers shall ensure that the lists relevant to each constituency are published widely in that constituency.

28. Polling stations and voting time.

(1) Every polling station shall, as far as possible, be located in an open ground, or where there is no open ground, in large premises of convenient access, having an outside door for the admittance of voters and, if possible, another door through which voters may leave after voting; and the polling station shall, as far as possible be such as to facilitate access by persons with disabilities and the aged.

(2) At every polling station, polling time shall commence at seven o'clock in the morning, and close at five o'clock in the afternoon.

(3) In the process of voting, no voter shall be allowed to carry a bag or anything that can be used for concealment.

(4) Any person registered as a voter and whose name appears in the voters roll of a polling station and who holds a valid voters card shall be entitled to vote at the polling station.

(5) If at the official hour of closing the poll in subsection (2) there are any voters in the polling station, or in the line of voters under section 29(3) who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so, the polling station shall be kept open to enable them to vote; but no person who is not actually present at the polling station or in the line of voters at the official hour of closing shall be allowed to vote, even if the polling station is still open when he or she arrives.

29. Polling and polling procedure.

(1) Voting at every election shall be by secret ballot using one ballot box at each polling station for all candidates in accordance with this Act.

(2) No presiding officer shall inquire about or attempt to see for whom a voter intends to vote; and any person who contravenes this subsection commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

(3) On polling day, all voters intending to vote shall form one line commencing backward from a point at least twenty metres away from the table at which each voter is to place the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper.

(4) Voters who have cast their votes and all other persons in the vicinity of the polling station other than election officers, candidates, candidates' agents and observers shall stand or sit at least twenty metres away from the table mentioned in subsection (3).

(5) Subject to subsection (7), at every polling station there shall be positioned—

- (a) a table where every voter shall report for identification in the voters roll and collection of a ballot paper;
  - (b) a second table positioned at least fifteen metres from the first with an ink pad, two pens, each pen being attached to the table with a string measuring about one metre in length, where every voter shall— (i) fix a tick with a pen or mark with a thumbprint in the space provided in the box against the picture of the candidate of his or her choice; and (ii) fold the ballot paper to enable it to be deposited in the slot of the ballot box;
  - (c) a third table located at least ten metres away from the second and on top of which shall rest a ballot box into which every voter shall deposit the folded ballot paper in the full view of all present; and
  - (d) a fourth table located at least ten metres from the ballot box where every voter, after depositing the ballot paper into the ballot box, shall proceed and have the thumb on the voter's right hand dipped into indelible ink to indicate that the voter has cast the ballot.
- (6) Where for the purposes of subsection (5)(d)—
- (a) the voter has no thumb on the right hand, the process specified in that paragraph shall be applied to the finger nearest to the position of the thumb on the voter's right hand;

- (b) the voter has no right hand, the process shall be applied to the left hand;
- (c) the voter has no fingers on the left or right hand, the voter may dip the tip of any hand into the indelible ink; or
- (d) the voter has no hands, the process shall be applied to any other conspicuous part of the voter's body as a polling assistant may determine.

(7) The presiding officer at each polling station shall, at the commencement of the poll and in the full view of all present, open the first ballot box, turn it upside down with the open top facing down to ensure to the satisfaction of everyone present that the ballot box is devoid of any contents and after that place the ballot box on the table referred to in subsection (5)(c).

(8) Where more than one ballot box is used, after the first is filled, the procedure prescribed in subsection (7) shall be followed prior to the placing on the table of any additional ballot box.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (5), "table" includes a desk, a box, a chair, a stool and any other object with a hard and smooth surface that can be used as a table.

30. No person to vote more than once.

(1) No person shall vote or attempt to vote more than once at any election.

(2) For the purpose of ensuring that no voter casts a vote more than once, a presiding officer or a polling assistant shall, before issuing a ballot paper, inspect the fingers of any voter in order to ascertain whether or not the voter has been marked with indelible ink in accordance with section 29; and the presiding officer or a polling assistant, as the case may be, shall refuse to issue a ballot paper to that voter if the presiding officer or polling assistant has reasonable grounds to believe that the voter has already voted or if the voter refuses to be inspected under this subsection.

31. Polling agents of candidates.

- (1) A candidate may be present in person or through his or her representatives or polling agents at each polling station for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the candidate with regard to the polling process.

(2) Not more than two representatives or polling agents shall be appointed by a candidate under subsection (1), and the appointments shall be in writing and presented to the presiding officers at each polling station.

(3) Representatives or polling agents appointed under subsection (2) shall report to the presiding officer of the polling station on polling day.

(4) The polling agents shall be seated in such a place as to enable them to observe and monitor clearly the voting process.

(5) The polling agents shall have an official copy of the voters register of that polling station at the candidate's cost.

32. No delay in voting.

(1) Every voter shall vote in accordance with section 29 without undue delay and may leave the polling station as soon as his or her ballot paper has been put into the ballot box under that section.

(2) The presiding officer may allow expectant mothers, old or sickly voters or voters with disabilities to vote without waiting in the line of voters.

33. Procedure for handing ballot paper to voter.

(1) A voter wishing to obtain a ballot paper for the purpose of voting shall produce his or her voters card to the presiding officer or polling assistant at the table referred to in section 29(5)(a).

(2) The presiding officer or polling assistant shall place a tick against the voter's name in the voters roll for the polling station.

(3) The presiding officer or polling assistant shall write the name of the polling station in the space provided on top of the ballot paper before handing the ballot paper to the person intending to vote.

(4) Subject to section 38, no person shall be permitted to vote at a polling station unless the person's name appears in the voters roll for that polling station.

- (5) Any person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence.

34. Where a voter spoils ballot paper.

A voter who has inadvertently dealt with the ballot paper delivered to him or her under section 29(5)(a) in such a manner that it has become impracticable to use it shall return it to the presiding officer who shall—

- (a) deface it by making two diagonal lines across it and writing the word “spoil” on it; and
- (b) deliver another ballot paper to the voter.

35. Where two voters appear under same name.

(1) Where a person represents himself or herself to be a particular voter and applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted in the name or number of that person, the second person shall only be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote after making before the presiding officer the declaration of identity, in Form ID in the Sixth Schedule to this Act and otherwise establishing his or her identity to the satisfaction of the presiding officer.

(2) In any case referred to in subsection (1), the presiding officer shall enter in the copy of the voters register or the voters roll, opposite the name of the voter—

- (a) a note of the voter having voted on a second ballot paper issued under the same name;
- (b) the fact of the declaration of identity having been made; and
- (c) any objections made on behalf of any of the candidates.

(3) Any person who makes any statement in a declaration under this section knowing it to be false or reckless whether it is true or false commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding forty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both.

36. Assistance to illiterate voters and other voters with a disability.

(1) Where a voter is by reason of blindness, illiteracy, old age or any other disability unable to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper, that voter may report at the polling station accompanied by a person of his or her choice to assist the voter to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper if necessary, on the voter's behalf or the voter may, subject to subsection (4), request another person present at the polling station to assist that voter for the purpose.

(2) It shall be lawful for any member of a voter's family to assist a voter under subsection (1) notwithstanding the fact that the former is below the age of eighteen years.

(3) A person shall not assist more than one voter to vote under subsection (1) in the election.

(4) A presiding officer shall refuse to allow a person to assist a voter to vote unless that officer is satisfied that it is permitted under subsection (1).

(5) An election officer, a candidate's agent or an observer at any polling station is not permitted to assist any voter with a disability under subsection (1).

(6) No person is authorised to assist any voter to mark the ballot paper under subsection (1) unless the voter has voluntarily requested that assistance.

(7) A person who—

(a) pretends to have a disability for the purposes of subsection (1) when he or she does not; or

(b) contravenes subsection (3) or (6), commits an offence.

37. Special procedure for voting for persons in institutions and restricted areas.

The commission may make special provision for the taking of the votes of patients in hospitals, or persons admitted in sanatoria or homes for the aged and similar institutions and also for persons in restricted areas such as soldiers and other security personnel; but the commission shall publish in the Gazette a list of the restricted areas under this section.

38. Factors which may not prevent a person from voting.

(1) The claim of a person to vote at any election shall not be rejected by reason only—

- (a) that one of the person's names has been omitted from the voters register or from the voters roll; or
- (b) by reason of the entry in the voters register or in the voters roll of a wrong village or of a wrongly spelt name, if, in the opinion of the presiding officer, the person is sufficiently identified.

(2) The claim of a female voter to vote at any polling station shall not be rejected by reason only that she has changed her surname by reason of marriage and that the change has not been reflected in the voters register or the voters roll for the polling station.

39. Returning officer to have powers of justices of the peace.

(1) During an election and while the polls are open, every returning officer and presiding officer is a keeper of the peace and has all the powers of a justice of the peace, and he or she may—

- (a) require the assistance of a member of the Uganda Police Force or other persons present to aid him or her in maintaining peace and good order at the polling station;
- (b) warn or arrest or cause, by verbal order, to be arrested, and place or cause to be placed in the custody of any police officer or other person authorised by law, any person disturbing the peace and good order at the polling station; or
- (c) cause any arrested person to be imprisoned under an order signed by him or her until not later than an hour after the closure of the poll.

(2) The returning officer or presiding officer shall, where he or she causes the arrest of any person under subsection (1), report the arrest giving details and reasons of the arrest in the form provided under the Fifth Schedule.

40. Presiding officer to appoint election constable.

(1) Where there is no police officer to maintain order in a rural polling station and the necessity to maintain order arises, the presiding officer shall appoint a person present to be an election constable to maintain order in the polling station throughout the day.

(2) A presiding officer may only appoint a person other than a police officer to be an election constable under subsection (1) when there is actual or threatened disorder or when it is likely that a large number of voters will seek to vote at the same time.

(3) There shall be appointed at every polling centre established under section 33(2) of the Electoral Commission Act one person in order to ensure the orderly and prompt entrance of the voters into their proper polling station within the centre.

(4) When an election constable has been appointed by a presiding officer, the constable shall take an oath in the Form OC in the Sixth Schedule to this Act before commencing to discharge his or her responsibilities as election constable.

(5) Every presiding officer who has appointed an election constable at a polling station shall state publicly his or her reasons for making the appointment in the space provided for that purpose in the polling report book.

(6) A presiding officer of a polling station located in an urban area may, where required for the purposes of subsection (2), appoint a police officer to maintain order in the polling station.

(7) In this section, “urban area” means a town, municipality or the City of Kampala.

41. Arms and ammunition prohibited.

(1) No person shall arm himself or herself during any part of polling day with any deadly weapon or approach within one kilometre of a polling station with deadly weapons unless called upon to do so by lawful authority or where he or she is ordinarily entitled by virtue of his or her office to carry arms.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

42. Loud speakers prohibited at polling stations.

(1) No person shall, on any polling day, for the purpose of promoting or opposing any candidate, use any loudspeaker or similar communication device prohibited within hearing distance of any polling station.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

43. Limitation on campaign period and on display of emblems, etc. on polling day.

(1) The campaign period prescribed by the commission under section 18(1) shall not extend beyond midnight of the day before polling day.

(2) No person shall—

(a) post or display on or in a polling station or in a hall, window or door of a building used as a polling station, any campaign literature, emblem, ensign, badge, label, ribbon, flag, banner, card, bill, poster or device, that could be taken as an indication of support for or opposition to a candidate; or

(b) while in a polling station, display on his or her person any emblem, ensign, badge, label, ribbon, flag, banner, card or device as a badge intended or likely to be taken as intended to distinguish the wearer as a supporter of any candidate.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prohibit a meeting of a candidate with his or her agents and facilitators for the election.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), an agent of a candidate may, in a polling station, display on his or her person, in such form as the commission may authorise, a label identifying his or her function and the name of the candidate he or she represents.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence.

44. Interruption and postponement of polling.

(1) Where polling at a polling station is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other event while there remains, in the voters register, voters who have not completed the polling process, the presiding officer shall adjourn the polling to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately seal and transfer the box to the nearest subcounty headquarters and inform the returning officer of the fact.

(2) Where the polling is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent polling shall be as on the original polling day.

45. Complaints at polling.

(1) The candidates' agents and any voter present at a polling station may raise and present in writing complaints relating to the voting at the polling station and shall have the right to obtain information from the presiding officer concerning the counting process.

(2) No presiding officer shall refuse to receive a complaint presented to him or her under subsection (1) and shall initial every such presentation and annex it as part of the official record of the polling station.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), any presentation received by the presiding officer under this section shall be deliberated upon and resolved by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.

(4) Subject to article 103(7) of the Constitution, where necessary in the opinion of the presiding officer to enable the voting process to proceed, the deliberation or resolution of a presentation under subsection (3) may be postponed until the completion of the voting process.

PART VII—COUNTING OF VOTES AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF RESULTS.

46. Votes to be counted at each polling station.

(1) At the close of voting, the presiding officer shall first tally the voters register with the number of voters and ballots issued before opening the ballot box and counting.

(2) Votes cast at a polling station shall be counted at the polling station immediately after the presiding officer declares the polling closed, and the votes cast in favour of each candidate shall be recorded separately in accordance with this Part of this Act.

(3) Subject to section 53, no votes shall stay uncounted overnight and, where required, the presiding officer shall provide light for the purposes of counting votes.

(4) Subject to this Act, a candidate is entitled to be present in person or through his or her agents at the polling station throughout the voting and counting of the votes and at the place of the tallying of the votes and ascertaining of the results of the poll for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the candidate with regard to all stages of the counting or tallying processes.

(5) The presiding officer and the candidates or their agents, if any, shall sign and retain a copy of a declaration stating—

- (a) the polling station;
- (b) the number of votes cast in favour of each candidate, and the presiding officer shall there and then announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating them to the returning officer.

(6) Votes cast for each candidate shall be recorded in both figures and words and then countersigned by polling agents before the declaration of the results.

(7) The following shall apply in respect of the signing of the declaration and the announcement of the results of voting under subsection (5)—

- (a) the candidates or their agents shall sign the declaration form before the announcement of the results under subsection (5);
- (b) where any of the candidates or their agents refuse or fail to sign the declaration form— (i) the candidates and their agents refusing or failing to sign shall record on the declaration form the reasons for the refusal or failing to sign; and (ii) where they refuse or fail to record the reasons, the presiding officer shall record the fact of their refusal or failure;
- (c) where any candidate or agent is absent, the presiding officer shall record the fact of that absence;
- (d) the refusal or failure of a candidate or agent to sign any declaration form under subsection (5) or to record the reasons for that refusal to sign as required under this subsection shall not by itself invalidate the results announced under subsection (5);
- (e) the absence of a candidate or an agent from the signing of a declaration form or the announcement of results under subsection (5) shall not by itself invalidate the results announced.

(8) At the commencement of the counting, the presiding officer shall, in the presence and full view of all present, open the ballot box and empty its contents onto the polling table and with the assistance of polling assistants proceed to count the votes separating the votes polled by each candidate.

47. Complaints during the counting of votes.

(1) A candidate or a candidate's agent or any voter present may raise any objection during the counting of the votes, and each presiding officer shall—

- (a) keep a record, in the report book, of every objection made by any candidate or a candidate's agent or any voter present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box; and
- (b) decide every question arising out of the objection.

(2) Every objection recorded under subsection (1) shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper to which it relates, and the ballot paper shall be initialled by the presiding officer and it shall be witnessed by the polling assistants.

(3) The decision of a presiding officer in respect of an objection raised under subsection (1) is final, subject to reversal only on recount ordered by the court upon an election petition.

48. Votes to be treated as invalid.

- (1) A vote cast is invalid if—
  - (a) the ballot paper is torn into two or more parts; or
  - (b) where the voting is by placing a mark of choice on the ballot paper—
    - (i) the voter marks the ballot with a mark other than the authorised mark of choice; or
    - (ii) places the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper in such a way that the choice of the voter cannot be reasonably ascertained.

(2) No ballot paper shall be taken as invalid under this section, irrespective of where the authorised mark of choice is placed, so long as the voter's choice can be reasonably ascertained.

(3) A vote which is invalid shall not be counted in determining the results of the election.

49. Declaration of results forms.

(1) Each presiding officer shall fill the necessary number of copies of the prescribed form for the declaration of results as follows—

- (a) one copy of the completed form shall remain attached to the report book referred to in section 5(1)(c);
- (b) one copy shall be retained by the presiding officer for display at the polling station;
- (c) one copy shall be enclosed in an envelope supplied by the commission for the purpose, sealed by the presiding officer and delivered to the nearest result collection centre prescribed by the returning officer, together with the report book, for transmission to the returning officer;
- (d) one copy shall be delivered to each of the candidates' agents or, in the absence of those agents, be retained by the presiding officer who shall transmit it to the returning officer; and
- (e) one copy shall be deposited and sealed in the ballot box.

(2) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates and the candidates' agents as may wish to be present, seal the ballot box with a seal provided for the purpose by the commission.

(3) The sealed ballot box referred to in subsection (2) shall contain the following items—

- (a) one duly signed declaration of results form;
- (b) the ballot papers received by each candidate, tied in separate bundles;
- (c) the invalid ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (d) the spoilt ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (e) the unused ballot papers; and
- (f) the voters roll used at the polling station.

(4) The declaration of results form referred to in subsection (1) shall be signed by the presiding officer and the candidates or their agents as are present and wish to do so, and section 46(4) and (5) shall apply.

50. Collection of results.

(1) A returning officer may appoint one or more persons for the purpose of collecting the results of the poll from a given number of results collecting centres prescribed by him or her; and each person shall, on delivering the results to the returning officer, sign the prescribed declaration of delivery of results form.

(2) Each presiding officer shall, without any delay after closing the poll, transmit or deliver to the returning officer or to the nearest results collecting centre—

- (a) the sealed ballot box;
- (b) the duly filled and signed declaration of results form;
- (c) the report book filled in and signed by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.

51. Safekeeping of election materials and records.

(1) The returning officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of all election documents used in the district in connection with an election until the documents are destroyed in accordance with the directions of the commission; but the commission shall not give such directions before the settlement of disputes, if any, arising from the elections.

- (2) A returning officer shall, on the receipt of each ballot box—
  - (a) take every precaution for its safe custody;
  - (b) examine the seal affixed to the ballot box, with a view to ensuring that the box is properly sealed; and
  - (c) if the box is not in good order, record his or her observations and affix a different seal supplied by the commission.

52. Tallying of results by returning officer.

(1) After all the envelopes containing the declaration of results forms have been received, the returning officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents or such of them as wish to be present, open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast for each candidate as recorded on each form.

(2) The returning officer may open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast even though some of the envelopes have not been received, if the candidates or the candidates' agents and a police officer not below the rank of inspector of police are present.

(3) Where any envelope under subsection (1) does not contain the results of the poll, the returning officer may, for the purpose of finalising a statement of the poll, use the declaration of results form in the presiding officer's report book; and if the report book does not contain the declaration of results form duly filled by the presiding officer, the returning officer may, in the presence of a police officer, not below the rank of inspector of police and any of the candidates or candidates' agents who wish to be present, open the ballot box in order to obtain the declaration of results form for the purpose of adding up the results of the poll.

(4) Where the returning officer opens the ballot box under subsection (2), he or she shall reseal the ballot box immediately after ascertaining the results with the declaration of results forms resealed in the envelopes in the ballot box.

53. Interruption and postponement of counting or tallying.

(1) Where counting or tallying of votes is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other reasonable cause, the presiding officer or returning officer shall adjourn the counting or tallying to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately inform—

- (a) in the case of the presiding officer, the returning officer; or
  - (b) in the case of the returning officer, the commission,
- of that fact.

(2) Where the counting or tallying of votes is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent counting, tallying or recounting shall be as on the original occasion.

(3) Where counting is adjourned under this section, the ballot boxes shall be kept in safe custody and the candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present to keep watch on the boxes until counting resumes.

54. Returning officer to transmit return and documents to commission.

(1) Each returning officer shall, immediately after the addition of the votes under section 52(1), declare the number of votes obtained by each candidate and also complete a return in the prescribed form, indicating the number of votes obtained by each candidate.

(2) Upon completing the return, every returning officer shall transmit to the commission the following documents—

- (a) the return form;
- (b) a report of the elections within the returning officer's electoral district;
- (c) the tally sheets; and
- (d) the declaration of results forms from which the official addition of the votes was made.

55. Declaration of results of presidential election.

(1) The commission shall ascertain, publish and declare in writing under its seal the results of the presidential election within forty-eight hours from the close of polling.

(2) The declaration under subsection (1) shall be in Form B or C as specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act, as the case may be.

(3) The results shall be published in the national media, and the commission shall as soon as practicable cause them to be published in the Gazette.

(4) A candidate shall not be declared elected as President unless the number of votes cast in favour of that candidate at the presidential election is more than 50 percent of the valid votes cast at the election.

(5) Where at a presidential election there are more than two candidates and no candidate obtains the number or percentage of votes specified in subsection (4), a second election shall be held within thirty days after the declaration of the results in which election the two candidates who obtained the highest number of votes shall be the only candidates.

(6) The candidate who obtains the highest number of votes in an election under subsection (5) shall be the elected President.

(7) A declaration executed by the commission under subsection (1) and bearing the seal of the commission shall be evidence that the person named in the declaration has been elected President.

(8) The commission shall, as soon as practicable after each presidential election, produce a detailed report on the conduct of the election.

(9) For the purposes of a report under subsection (8), every candidate at an election and every official agent of any candidate has the right to send to the commission a statement in writing containing any complaint that he or she may wish to make with respect to the conduct of the election or of any election officer and any suggestions with respect to such changes or improvements in the law or in the administrative arrangements as he or she may consider desirable.

(10) Subsections (7), (8) and (9) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an election in which an unopposed candidate is declared elected under section 16.

56. Assumption of office of elected President.

(1) A person elected President during the term of a President shall assume office within twenty-four hours after the expiration of the term of the predecessor and in any other case, within twenty-four hours after being declared elected President.

(2) Before assuming the duties of the office of President a person elected President shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance and the presidential oath specified in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution.

PART VIII—CHALLENGING A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

57. Challenging a presidential election.

(1) Any aggrieved candidate may petition the Supreme Court for an order that a candidate declared elected as President was not validly elected.

(2) A petition under subsection (1) shall be in a form prescribed by the Chief Justice under subsection (11) and shall be lodged in the Supreme Court registry within ten days after the declaration of the election results.

(3) The Supreme Court shall inquire into and determine the petition expeditiously and shall declare its finding not later than thirty days from the date the petition is filed.

(4) Where no petition is filed within the time prescribed under subsection (2), or where a petition having been filed, is withdrawn by the person who filed it or is dismissed by the Supreme Court, the candidate declared elected shall conclusively be taken to have been duly elected as President.

- (5) After due inquiry under subsection (3), the Supreme Court may—
  - (a) dismiss the petition;
  - (b) declare which candidate was validly elected; or
  - (c) annul the election.
- (6) The election of a candidate as President shall only be annulled on any of the following grounds if proved to the satisfaction of the court—
  - (a) noncompliance with the provisions of this Act, if the court is satisfied that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in those provisions and that the noncompliance affected the result of the election in a substantial manner;
  - (b) that the candidate was at the time of his or her election not qualified or was disqualified for election as President;
  - (c) that an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval.
- (7) Nothing in this section confers on the Supreme Court when hearing an election petition power to convict a person for a criminal offence.
- (8) Where upon hearing a petition and before coming to a decision, the court is satisfied that a recount is necessary and practical, it may order a recount of the votes cast.
- (9) Where it appears to the Supreme Court on hearing an election petition under this section that the facts before it disclose that a criminal offence may have been committed, it shall make a report on the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for appropriate action to be taken and shall state in the report the name of the person, the nature of the offence and any other information that the court may consider relevant and appropriate for the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (10) Where an election is annulled, a fresh election shall be held within twenty days from the date of the annulment.
- (11) The Chief Justice shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, make rules providing for the conduct of petitions under this Act.

58. Witnesses in election petition.

- (1) At the trial of an election petition—
  - (a) any witness shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner as a witness may be summoned and sworn in civil proceedings;
  - (b) the court may summon and examine any person who in the opinion of the court is likely to assist the court to arrive at an appropriate decision;
  - (c) any person summoned by the court under paragraph (b) may be cross-examined by the parties to the petition if they so wish.

(2) A witness who, in the course of the trial of an election petition, wilfully makes a statement of fact material to the proceedings which he or she knows to be false or does not know or believe to be true or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding eighty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

59. Withdrawal of election petition.

(1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn except with leave of the court and after such notice has been given as the court may direct.

(2) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any candidate who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition refers may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner who desires to withdraw.

(3) The court may substitute as a petitioner any applicant under subsection (2) and may further, if the proposed withdrawal has been, in the opinion of the court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order, direct that any security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may become payable by the substituted petitioner and that the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs.

(4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

60. Petition to abate on death of petitioner.

An election petition shall abate at the death of the sole petitioner or of all the petitioners.

61. Saving in respect of vacation of office.

Where as a result of the determination of an election petition the election of a person as President is set aside, the determination shall not invalidate anything done by that person prior to the determination, in the purported exercise of the functions of the office of President.

PART IX—ILLEGAL PRACTICES.

62. Illegal practices relating to bribery.

(1) Any candidate or agent of a candidate who either before or during an election gives or provides any money, gift or other consideration to a voter with the intention of inducing the person to vote for him or her commits an illegal practice.

(2) Any person who receives any money, gift or other consideration under subsection (1) commits the offence under that subsection.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of the provision of refreshments or food—

- (a) offered by a candidate or candidate's agent who provides refreshments or food as an election expense at a candidate's campaign planning and organisation meeting under section 18(5); or
- (b) offered by any person other than a candidate or a candidate's agent who, at his or her own expense provides the refreshments or food at a candidate's campaign planning and organisation meeting under section 18(5).

(4) Every candidate or candidate's agent who, by himself or herself or any other person, directly or indirectly, before the close of polls on polling day offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide any alcoholic beverage to any person commits an illegal practice.

(5) Any person who during the campaign in respect of any presidential election solicits from a candidate or a candidate's agent any money, gift, alcoholic beverage or other consideration in return for directly or indirectly influencing another person to vote or refrain from voting for a candidate or in consideration for his or her voting for the candidate or not voting for another candidate commits an illegal practice.

63. Procuring prohibited persons to vote.

Any person who votes or induces or procures any person to vote at an election, knowing that that person is prohibited by law from voting at that election, commits an illegal practice.

64. Publication of false statements as to illness, death or withdrawal of candidate.

Any person who, before or during an election, publishes a false statement of the illness, death or withdrawal of a candidate at that election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate knowing that statement to be false or not knowing or believing it on reasonable grounds to be true commits an illegal practice.

65. Obstruction of voters.

Any person who, at an election or on nomination days, wilfully obstructs a voter, or an aspiring candidate either at the polling station or nomination centre or on his or her way to or from the polling station or nomination centre, commits an illegal practice.

66. General penalty for illegal practices.

Any person who commits an illegal practice under this Part commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

- (a) in the case of an offence under section 62(1), (2) or (5), to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both;
- (b) in any other case to a fine not exceeding eighty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both.

PART X—OTHER ELECTION OFFENCES.

67. Misconduct at candidates meetings.

(1) Any person who, at any candidates meeting relating to an election, acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of disrupting and preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

(2) The chairperson of a meeting to which this section applies may direct any person who, in the opinion of the chairperson, is preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is being held to leave the place; and if the person fails or refuses to leave, the chairperson may cause that person to be removed from that place using such force as may be reasonably necessary.

(3) A person who has in accordance with subsection (2) left or who has been removed from a place in which a meeting to which this section applies is taking place shall not, without the permission of the chairperson of the meeting, return to that place while the meeting is still in progress.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one month or to both.

68. Failure by presiding officers to furnish election returns.

Any presiding officer who fails without lawful excuse to furnish the returns of the election to the returning officer within the time in which that person is required to furnish those returns commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding forty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to both.

69. Offences relating to voting.

Any person who—

- (a) forges or fraudulently defaces or destroys any document relating to the holding of an election, or alters any such document or delivers to the returning officer any document, knowing it to be forged;
- (b) forges, counterfeits or destroys any ballot paper or the official mark on any ballot paper;
- (c) without authority supplies any ballot paper to any person;
- (d) without authority sells or offers to sell any document relating to the holding of an election to any person or purchases or offers to purchase any such document from any person;

- (e) not being a person entitled under this Act to be in possession of any document relating to the holding of an election, has any such document in his or her possession without reasonable cause;
- (f) knowingly and intentionally puts into a ballot box anything other than the ballot paper which he or she is authorised to put in;
- (g) without authority, takes out of a polling station any ballot paper or other official document relating to an election or is found in possession of any ballot paper or such document outside a polling station;
- (h) without due authority, destroys, takes, opens or otherwise interferes with a ballot box, ballot documents or other property in use or intended to be used for the purpose of an election; (i) without due authority, prints any ballot paper or what purports to be or is capable of being used as a ballot paper at an election; or (j) not being authorised so to do under this Act makes any mark on a ballot paper issued to a person, other than the person making the mark, with intent that the ballot paper shall be used to record the vote of that other person, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding five years or to both.

70. Unauthorised voting or voting more than once.

Any person who knowingly—

- (a) votes at an election at which that person is not entitled to vote; or
- (b) votes more than once at an election, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding five years or to both.

71. Making wrong returns of an election.

Any election officer or other person having any duty to perform in relation to an election who makes, in any record, return or other document which he or she is required to keep or make under this Act, any entry which he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding five years or to both.

72. Personation.

(1) Any person who votes as some other person commits the offence of personation whether that other person is living or dead or is a fictitious person.

(2) A person who commits an offence of personation is liable on conviction to imprisonment not exceeding five years.

73. Offence of undue influence.

A person commits the offence of undue influence—

- (a) if that person directly or indirectly in person or through any other person—
  - (i) makes use of, or threatens to make use of, any force or violence; (ii) inflicts or threatens to inflict in person or through any other person any temporal or spiritual injury, damage, harm or loss upon or against any person, in order to induce or compel that person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of that person having voted or refrained from voting; or
- (b) if that person by abduction, duress or any fraudulent device or contrivance, impedes or prevails upon a voter either to vote or to refrain from voting.

74. Prohibition of certain activities on polling day.

(1) Without derogation from any other provision of this Act or any other enactment, no person shall, within one hundred metres from any polling station on any polling day—

- (a) convoke or take part in any gathering of more than twelve persons;
- (b) canvass for votes;
- (c) utter any slogan;
- (d) distribute leaflets or pamphlets for or on behalf of any candidate;
- (e) organise or engage in public singing or dancing; or
- (f) use any band or any musical instrument.

(2) During the hours when a polling station is open on a polling day no person shall, within two hundred metres of any polling station—

- (a) seek to influence, in any manner, any person to vote for any candidate or to ascertain for which candidate any voter intends to vote or has voted; or
- (b) sell any intoxicating liquor.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one month or to both.

75. Defacement of notices and posters.

(1) Any person who, without lawful excuse, destroys, mutilates, defaces or removes any notice which is exhibited under the authority of this Act or any document which is made available for inspection under any provision of this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both.

(2) Any person who maliciously defaces or removes or tears any election poster of any nominated candidate commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to both.

(3) A court which convicts a person of an offence under subsection (1) shall, within fourteen days after the conviction, report the conviction in writing to the commission.

76. Obstruction of election officers.

Any person who wilfully obstructs or interferes with an election officer in the execution of the officer's duty commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both.

PART XI—GENERAL.

77. General penalty for offence other than illegal practice.

Where no penalty is expressly provided under this Act for an offence other than an illegal practice, the offender is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

78. Prior consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to prosecute.

(1) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a person from being—

(a) charged with an offence under this Act;

(b) arrested with or without warrant in respect of any such offence;
or

(c) remanded on bail or in custody in respect of any such offence, without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act in relation to a ballot paper or other document, the property in the ballot paper or other document, as well as the property in the counterfoil of any ballot paper, shall be stated to be vested in the commission.

79. Time within which criminal proceedings must be commenced.

Proceedings against a person in respect of an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act shall be commenced within three months after the offence which is alleged to have been committed or within one month after a court finds, on trial of a petition, that an offence may have been committed.

80. No person to be required to divulge how he or she voted.

No person who has voted at an election shall in any legal proceedings, whether taken to question the election or return or otherwise, be required to state for whom he or she has voted.

81. Service of notice and documents.

(1) A public notice required to be given by any person under this Act shall, except where it is expressly directed to be published in the Gazette or in any other particular manner, be sufficiently given if it is published in a newspaper circulating in the constituency or area intended to be affected by the notice or if it is posted outside the principal outer door of every magistrates court office in that constituency or area or in such other place or places, if any, as the commission may determine.

(2) Except as otherwise specially provided in this Act and without derogation from the Interpretation Act, when any notice or other document is required to be served on any person under this Act, it may be served—

- (a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is addressed or his or her authorised agent;
- (b) by leaving it at his or her last known place of residence or any place of residence stated on a voters roll as his or her place of residence; or
- (c) by sending it to any place of residence referred to in paragraph (b) through the post by registered letter marked upon the outside “electoral notice letter”; and, unless the contrary is proved, the notice or other document shall be taken to have been served at the time at which the registered letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

82. Electoral process may not be conducted on weekends.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding any other law, any part of the electoral process under this Act may be conducted on days that may appear to the commission to be expedient with the exception of Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

83. Publications in media.

Whenever any matter is required to be published in the Gazette, it shall also as soon as practicable be published in a newspaper circulating in the relevant area.

84. Modification of Act pursuant to change in political system under article 74.

(1) Where a new political system is adopted in accordance with article 74 of the Constitution, this Act, and any statutory instruments made under it, shall have effect subject to such modifications as are practical and necessary to give effect to the adoption of the new political system under article 74 of the Constitution.

(2) Where a new political system is adopted as referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may, with the prior approval of Parliament, make such regulations as may be necessary for giving effect to the change in the political system for the purposes of this Act and may, in particular, subject to subsection (1), where necessary, by such regulations, make different provision for campaigning than what is prescribed under this Act.

85. Regulations.

(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the commission and with the approval of Parliament, by statutory instrument, make regulations for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), regulations may be made under that subsection for any or all of the following matters—

- (a) the form of any document to be used in carrying out any purposes of this Act;
- (b) the duties of election officers, including the manner of identifying voters for issuing to them of ballot papers and the questions to be put to them;
- (c) such measures to be taken in connection with an election as may be desirable or expedient to ensure that— (i) employers provide their employees with an opportunity to vote in any election; (ii) candidates are afforded reasonable and equal access to the use of State-owned communication media, for the purposes of complying with article 67(2) and (3) of the Constitution and section 22(1) and (2) of this Act;
- (d) where practicable, measures necessary for ensuring that Ugandans qualified to vote but resident outside Uganda are enabled to vote.

(3) Regulations made under this section may provide in respect of a contravention of the regulations any penalty not exceeding a fine of twenty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

86. Power of Minister to amend First Schedule.

The Minister may, with the approval of the Cabinet, by statutory instrument, amend the First Schedule to this Act.

87. Saving.

Without prejudice to the Interpretation Act, any statutory instrument, form or other document made or issued under or existing by virtue of the Presidential Elections (Interim Provisions) Statute, 1996, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force until revoked or replaced under this Act.
