THE TRADE MARKS ACT.

(Cap. 83).

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that any person who has grounds to oppose the registration of any of the marks advertised herein may within sixty days from the date of this Gazette, lodge a Notice of opposition on Trade Mark Form No. 6 together with a fee of Shs. 4000 in case of National applicants or US$ 250 in case of Foreign applicants. The period of lodging Notice of opposition may be extended in suitable cases by the Registrar as he thinks fit upon such terms as he may direct. Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant so that he may have an opportunity to withdraw his application before the expense of opposition proceedings is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by the opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant. Representations of the marks herein advertised can be inspected at the office of the Registrar of Trade Marks, Amamu House, Plot No. 5B George Street, P.O. Box 6848, Kampala.

(3) Marking of a petroleum product shall be done at a custom bonded facility.

(4) A petroleum product shall not be released from a custom bonded facility unless it has been marked.

(5) A dispensing inventory form of marking shall be issued to the oil product importer or marketer once marking has been carried out on his or her product.

5. Standard

A petroleum product for sale in Uganda shall meet the required standard.

6. Tests and analysis

(1) An officer may take a sample of a reasonable quantity, not exceeding 500 ml of a petroleum product, from a petroleum depot, retail outlet, non-retail consumers outlet, oil tanker, and any other point throughout Uganda for the purposes of carrying out test and examination to determine the level of the marker in the sample and the respective quality of the petroleum product.

(2) The results of a test or analysis done under subregulation (1) shall be made available to the Ministry, Uganda Revenue Authority, Uganda National Bureau of Standards, brand owner, importer and owner of the petroleum product.

7. Diluted or adulterated product

Where the result of a test or analysis done under regulation 6 indicates a dilution or adulteration, the stock of the petroleum product from which the sample was drawn shall be dealt with in the following manner—

- (a) where the product added to the petroleum product is one for which duty is payable, the owner of the diluted product shall pay duty on the entire stock of diluted product and a penalty of twenty five currency points;
- (b) where a product of a different type or grade specification has been added to the petroleum product, the product shall be brought to the right specification at the cost of the owner or importer and shall in addition pay a fine of ten percent of the sales price of the petroleum product, less taxes to the fuel marking agent as attendant costs; and
- (c) where an owner or importer fails to bring the product to the right specification, the product shall be destroyed at the cost of the owner and the owner shall pay a fine of fifty currency points.

8. Appointment of officers

The Commissioner shall appoint in writing, officers for purposes of carrying out duties under these Regulations.

9. Powers of officers

- (1) An inspector appointed under regulation 8 shall have power to—
 - (a) mark a petroleum product;
 - (b) stop a fuel tanker for inspection, upon identifying himself or herself;
 - (c) inspect a petroleum product outlet and take a reasonable sample of the product for verification and analysis;

- (d) seal off a petroleum product facility including a tank, pump, meter, truck or wagon, where it is found that the product has not been marked or is adulterated or diluted;
- (e) seal off a petroleum product facility including a product tank, pump, meter, truck or wagon, where it is found that the products does not meet the required standard or where the product is marked with an unauthorised marker; and
- (f) request for and inspect relevant documents and books of accounts connected with the operations of the holder of a permit or licence in the petroleum supply chain.

(2) The Officer shall prepare a report with respect to the status of the site, outlet or depot found with a petroleum product that is unmarked, marked with an unauthorised marker, adulterated or diluted.

10. Other offences and penalties.

(1) The holder of a petroleum operating licence, whether an importer, marketer of a petroleum product, dealer or retailer, or any other person commits an offence where he or she—

- (a) is found in possession of an unauthorised marker or a petroleum product with an unauthorised marker;
- (b) tampers with or breaks a seal applied to a petroleum facility including a pump of a depot, retail outlet, consumer site, truck or wagon.
- (c) exceeds fourty five days before effecting payment for marking carried out under these regulations.

(2) An importer, marketer or dealer of a petroleum product, or any other person who commits an offence under subregulation (1) is liable on conviction to—

- (a) pay a fine of twenty five currency points, in the case of an offender committing the offence for the first time;

- (b) pay a fine of forty eight currency points, in the case of an offender committing the offence for the second time;
- (c) suspension of his or her operating licence for a period of not more than six months in the case of a third offence;
- (d) revocation of his or her operating licence and forfeiture to the state of the petroleum product in the case of a fourth offence.

11. Fees.

The fees to be paid by importers for the testing and examination of petroleum products under these Regulations shall be five Uganda shillings for every litre.

12. Revocation.

The Petroleum (Marking and Quality Control) Regulations, 2008 are hereby revoked.

ENG. HILARY O. ONEK (MP),
Minister of Energy and Mineral Development.

(3) A victim of trafficking shall be assisted to enable his or her views and concerns to be presented and considered at the appropriate stages of the proceedings.

(4) The institution of a criminal charge arising from acts of trafficking in persons shall not affect the rights of a victim to pursue a civil case for damages.

(5) A person instituting proceedings under this section shall be exempted from payment of any filing fees required under civil procedure laws.

(6) A victim of trafficking in persons will be accorded the available health and social services, medical care, counseling and psychological assistance, on a confidential basis and with full respect of his/her privacy, in a language she/he understands.

(7) A victim of trafficking shall be considered for provision of safe and appropriate accommodation and material assistance, where necessary and possible.

(8) Public officers and any other person involved in the detection, investigation, prosecution or trial of offences under this Act shall whenever necessary, refer victims to appropriate organizations and institutions for assistance and support.

(9) The protection, assistance and support to children shall be provided in accordance with their special needs, especially with regard to accommodation, education and care.

(10) A victim of trafficking shall be entitled to information on the nature of protection, assistance and support he or she is entitled to and the possibilities of assistance and support.

(11) The protection, assistance and support subscribed in this section shall be provided by Government and other agencies.

13. Confidentiality.

(1) At any stage of the investigation or trial of an offence under this Act, law enforcement officers, prosecutors, judicial officers and medical practitioners, as well as parties to the case, shall recognize the right to privacy of the victim of trafficking.

(2) For the purpose of (1), proceedings of the court shall be conducted in camera, outside the presence of the media, in cases involving children, sexual exploitation, and other cases where the court considers this appropriate.

(3) Any editor, publisher, and reporter or columnist in case of printed materials, announcer or producer in case of television and radio, producer or director of a film in case of the movie industry, or any person utilizing trimedia facilities or information technology who publishes or causes publicity of the names and personal circumstances or any other information tending to establish the victim's identity without authority, commits an offence and is liable to a fine of two hundred and fifty currency points.

14. Repatriation of Victims of Trafficking In Persons.

(1) The Minister in cooperation with the appropriate government agencies shall be responsible for the facilitation of repatriation of victims of trafficking in persons to and from Uganda.

(2) Where the repatriation of a Ugandan victim is likely to expose the victim to greater risks or to compromise his or her safety, the Minister may through the relevant office negotiate with the host government for the extension of appropriate residency permits, work permits and maintenance as may be necessary to protect the victim.

(3) Where the repatriation of a foreign victim is likely to expose the victim to greater risks, to compromise his or her safety, or where presence of the victim is necessary for court proceedings, the Minister may facilitate the extension of appropriate residency permits, work permits and maintenance as may be necessary to protect, assist and support the victim.

(4) On getting notice of a victim of trafficking in persons in a foreign country, the minister shall verify whether the victim is a citizen or a permanent resident of Uganda and shall; where a victim is proved to be a Ugandan or a permanent resident without proper documentation, issue the relevant documents and other relevant authorization to facilitate the repatriation of the victim to or from Uganda.

15. Restitution.

Where a person is convicted of trafficking in persons under this Act, the court shall in addition to any other punishment, order that person to pay restitution to the victim or other person or organization which may have incurred expenses on the victim's behalf for—

- (a) costs of medical and psychological treatment;
- (b) costs of physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation;
- (c) costs of necessary transportation, temporary housing and child care;
- (d) costs of re-integration in society; and
- (e) any other costs that the court may deem fit.

16. Compensation.

Where a person is convicted of trafficking in persons under this Act, the court may in addition to any other punishment order that person to pay compensation to the victim for—

- (a) Physical injury;
- (b) Emotional distress;
- (c) Pain and suffering;
- (d) Loss or damage;
- (e) Any other damage that the court may deem fit.

17. Absence of Victims and Court Awards.

The return of the victim to his or her country, or other absence of the victim from the jurisdiction shall not prejudice the victim's right to receive restitution or compensation.

PART IV—JURISDICTION.

18. Jurisdiction.

A case under this Act shall be tried where the offence was committed, or where any of its components occurred, or where the trafficked person actually resided at the time of the commission of the offence.

19. Extra-Territorial Jurisdiction.

This Act shall apply to offences committed outside Uganda where—

(1) A person who, while being a citizen of, or permanently residing in Uganda, commits an act outside Uganda, which act would constitute an offence had it been committed in Uganda.

(2) The victim was a citizen of Uganda at the time of commission of the offence.

(3) The offence was committed partly inside and partly outside Uganda.

(4) A substantial proportion of the effects of the offence have occurred or taken place within the territory of Uganda.

Provided that—

- (a) no proceedings shall be instituted under this section without the written consent of the Attorney General;
- (b) if the consent of the Attorney General is received under (a) proceedings may be instituted in any appropriate court and such court shall have jurisdiction to try the matter as if the offence or offences had been committed within its jurisdiction;
- (c) a person shall not be tried for an offence under this section if that person has been acquitted or convicted of the same offence in another country.

20. Extradition.

A person charged with an offence under this Act shall be liable to extradition under the existing Extradition laws.

PART V—PREVENTION OF TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS OFFICE

21. Designation of Prevention of Trafficking in Persons Office.

(1) The Minister shall designate an office to be responsible for the coordination, monitoring and overseeing the implementation of this Act.

- (2) The designated office shall have the following functions—
 - (a) to formulate a comprehensive and integrated program to prevent and suppress trafficking in persons;
