[This is the version of this document from 5 October 2018.]

An Act to give the force of law in Uganda to the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region and to provide for related matters.

WHEREAS the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region which is set out in the Schedule to this Act was signed in Nairobi, Republic of Kenya on the 15th day of December, 2006 on behalf of the Governments of the Republic of Angola, the Republic of Burundi, the Central African Republic, the Republic of Congo, the Democratic Republic of Congo, the Republic of Kenya, the Republic of Rwanda, the Republic of South Sudan, the Republic of Sudan, the United Republic of Tanzania, the Republic of Uganda and the Republic of Zambia;

AND WHEREAS the Cabinet of the Republic of Uganda ratified the Pact on 5th February 2008 in accordance with article 123 of the Constitution and section 2(a) of the Ratification of Treaties Act;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to give the force of law to the Pact in Uganda;

NOW THEREFORE be it enacted by Parliament as follows:

1. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Conference" means the International Conference on the Great Lakes;

"Conference Secretariat" means the Secretariat of the International Conference on the Great Lakes;

"Member states" means the twelve core member states of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region, namely the Republic of Angola, the Republic of Burundi, the Central African Republic, the Republic of the Congo, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the Republic of Kenya, the Republic of Rwanda, the Republic of South Sudan, the Republic of the Sudan, the United Republic of Tanzania, the Republic of Uganda and the Republic of Zambia;

"Minister" means the Minister responsible for foreign affairs;

"Ministry" means the Ministry responsible for foreign affairs;

"Pact" means the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region signed in Nairobi, Kenya on the 15th day of December 2006 as prescribed in the Schedule to this Act;

"Protocols" means the protocols adopted or subsequently adopted under the Pact.

2. Pact to have force of law in Uganda

- (1) The Pact as set out in the Schedule to this Act shall have the force of law in Uganda.

- (2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), all rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, and restrictions created or arising by or under the Pact and all remedies and procedures provided for by or under the Pact shall be recognized and available in law and shall be enforceable and allowed in Uganda.

3. Finances

- (1) The finances for enforcing the Pact in Uganda shall consist of—
 - (a) money appropriated by Parliament to the Ministry for the purposes of the Pact; and
 - (b) grants or donations from the Government or other sources made with approval of the Minister and Minister responsible for finance.
- (2) Subject to article 159 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, for the purposes of providing any sums required for giving effect to the Pact under this section, the Minister responsible for finance may, on behalf of Government, make such arrangements as are necessary or raise loans by creation and issuance of securities bearing such rates of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption or otherwise as the Minister considers fit.
- (3) A grant, donation or loan received by the Government for purposes of the Pact shall be paid into and form part of the Consolidated Fund and shall be available in the manner in which funds from the Consolidated Fund are available.

4. Immunities and privileges of employees

- (1) A person who is employed in the service of the Conference in Uganda, who is a citizen of a member state other than Uganda, shall—
 - (a) be immune from civil process with respect to acts performed by them in their official capacity; and
 - (b) be accorded such immunities from immigration restrictions and alien registration as the Member States may determine.
- (2) Experts and consultants rendering services to the Conference in Uganda shall be accorded such immunities and privileges as may be agreed by member states.

5. Status, immunities, and privileges of the Conference

- (1) The Conference shall be accorded such status, capacity, immunities, privileges, and exemptions in Uganda as may be agreed upon by the member states.
- (2) Members of the organs and institutions of the Conference shall be accorded such immunities and privileges as may be agreed upon by the member states.

6. Subsequent amendment of the Pact

Where, after the commencement of this Act, the Pact is amended or modified in accordance with the provisions of article 34 of the Pact and ratified under article 123 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, the Minister shall cause a copy of the amendment or modification to be laid before Parliament, and the amendment or modification shall, for the purposes of this Act, come or be deemed to have come into operation on the date it is laid before Parliament.

7. Regulations

- (1) The minister may, in consultation with the line ministry, by statutory instrument, make regulations to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the minister shall make regulations for—
- (a) the exploitation of natural resources;
 - (b) the operationalization of the Specific Reconstruction and Development Zone;
 - (c) the prevention and suppression of sexual violence against women and children;
 - (d) the protection and assistance to internally displaced persons;
 - (e) the protection of property rights of returning persons;
 - (f) the management of information and communication; and
 - (g) any other matter incidental for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act and the prescription of anything required or authorized under this Act.
- (3) Regulations made under this Act may, in respect of any contravention of any of the regulations—
- (a) prescribe a penalty not exceeding a fine of five thousand currency points or imprisonment not exceeding ten years or both;
 - (b) in the case of a continuing contravention, prescribe an additional penalty not exceeding a fine of five hundred currency points in respect of each day on which the offence continues;
 - (c) prescribe a higher penalty not exceeding a fine of five thousand five hundred currency points or imprisonment not exceeding 12 years, or both in respect of a second or subsequent contravention, and
 - (d) provide for forfeiture of anything used in the commission of the offence.

Schedule (Section 1)

PREAMBLE

WE, Heads of State and Government of the Member States of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region;

MINDFUL of the need to respect democracy and good governance; the fundamental principles enshrined in the UN Charter and the African Union Constitutive Act, notably territorial integrity, national sovereignty, non-interference and non-aggression, prohibition of any Member State from allowing the use of its territory as a base for aggression or subversion against another Member State;

MINDFUL of the need for an effective and sustained political will to jointly seek peaceful solutions to disputes and more especially to honor our commitments in a spirit of mutual trust;

REAFFIRMING our individual and collective determination to base the relations between our States on international legal instruments and universal fundamental principles, the priority political options and the guiding principles referred to in the Dar-es-Salaam Declaration, as well as to transform the Great Lakes Region, in the framework of our common destiny, into a space of durable peace and security, of political and social stability, and of economic growth and shared development by multi-sector cooperation and integration for the sole benefit of our peoples;

DETERMINED to ensure the strict observance of the standards and principles of international humanitarian law, notably those relating to the protection and assistance of women, children, refugees and displaced persons, the violations of which have seriously affected the populations concerned;

REAFFIRMING our decision taken at Dar-es-Salaam to declare the Great Lakes Region a specific zone of reconstruction and development and jointly determined to meet the challenge of reconstruction and development with the full participation of all our peoples, particularly in partnership with the civil society organizations, young people, women, the private sector and religious organizations, as well as in close cooperation with the relevant regional organizations, the African Union, the United Nations, and the international community in general;

DETERMINED to adopt and implement collectively the appropriate Programmes of Action, the Protocols, and mechanisms to translate into reality the priority political options and the guiding principles of the Dar-es-Salaam Declaration;
