2001 No. 58.

The Customs Management (Export of Textile and Apparel Articles to the United States) Regulations, 2001.

(Made under section 191 of the Customs Management Act, Cap 27 E.A)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister by section 191 of the Customs Management Act, these Regulations are made this 17th day of October, 2001.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Customs Management (Export of Textile and Apparel Articles to the United States) Regulations, 2001 and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of January, 2001. Citation.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

“Act” means the Customs Management Act;

Cap. 27
E.A.

“authorised officer” means an officer authorised by the Minister responsible for trade to perform functions under these Regulations;

“country of origin” means a country in which apparel or textile articles have been produced or manufactured, according to the criteria laid down for the purposes of application of customs tariff or quantitative restrictions or of any other measures related to trade;

“Government” means the Government of the Republic of Uganda;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for finance;

“NAFTA” means the North American Free Trade Agreement entered into between the United States, Mexico and Canada on December, 17th 1992;

“textiles” means textiles and apparel products of cotton, wool, silk, man-made fibre and vegetable fibre other than cotton;

“Trade and Development Act of 2000” means the Trade and Development Act enacted by the Congress of the United States of America and duly signed into law on the 18th May, 2000;

“transshipment” has occurred when preferential treatment for a textile has been claimed under the Trade and Development Act of 2000 on the basis of material false information concerning the country of origin, manufacture, processing, or assembly of the article or any of its components; and false information is material if disclosure of the true information would mean or would have meant that the article is or was ineligible for preferential treatment under the Trade and Development Act of 2000;

“visa” means a stamp or certification on the commercial invoice.

Application
for a visa.

3. (1) A person intending to export textile or apparel articles to the United States shall make an application for a visa to the Ministry responsible for trade.

(2) The application for a visa shall be in the form prescribed in the First Schedule to these Regulations and shall be accompanied by the original commercial invoice.

(3) The visa shall be in the form prescribed in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

4. A person shall be eligible for a visa if the goods involved fall in any of the following categories and all of the assembly of such articles occurs in Uganda or, if assembly occurs in more than one beneficiary sub-Saharan African Country, where sufficient assembly occurs in Uganda to establish Uganda as the country of origin under United States law—

Eligibility.

- (1) apparel articles assembled in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries from fabrics wholly formed and cut in the United States from yarns wholly formed in the United States;
- (2) apparel articles assembled in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries from fabrics wholly formed and cut in the United States from yarns wholly formed in the United States if, after such assembly, the articles would have qualified for entry under subheading 9802.00.80 of the HTSUS but for the fact that the articles were embroidered or subject to stone-washing, enzyme-washing, acid-washing, perma-pressing, oven baking, bleaching, garment-dyeing, screen priming, or other similar processes;
- (3) apparel articles cut in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries from fabrics wholly formed in the United States from yarns wholly formed in the United States if such articles are assembled in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries with thread formed in the United States;
- (4) apparel articles wholly assembled in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries from fabrics wholly formed in one or more beneficiary sub Saharan African countries from yarn originating either in the United States or one or more beneficiary sub-Saharan African countries;

LAW DEVELOPMENT CENTRE
REFERENCE LIBRARY

- (5) apparel articles assembled in one or more lesser developed beneficiary sub-Saharan African countries regardless of the country of origin of the fabrics used to make such articles;
- (6) sweaters in chief weight of cashmere, knit to shape in one or more beneficiary sub-Saharan African countries and classifiable under subheading 6110.10 of the Harmonised Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS);
- (7) sweaters, 50 percent or more by weight or wool measuring 18.5 microns in diameter or finer, knit to shape in one or more beneficiary sub-Saharan African countries;
- (8) apparel articles wholly assembled in one or more beneficiary countries from fabric or yarn that is not formed in the United States or a beneficiary sub-Saharan African country, to the extent that apparel articles of such fabrics or yarns would be eligible for preferential treatment, without regard to the source of the fabric or yarn, under annex 401 to the NAFTA, or as designated as not available in commercial quantities in the United States; or
- (9) handmade, handloomed or folklore articles to be defined in bilateral consultations.

Issuing officer.

5. The issuance of the visa shall be the responsibility of an officer designated by the Minister responsible for trade by statutory instrument.

Validity of the visa.

6. The visa issued under these Regulations shall be valid until the textile or apparel articles have been cleared by the United States Customs Service or until such a visa is revoked.

7. A person shall not export textile or apparel articles to the United States without first obtaining a Certificate of Origin.

Certificate
of Origin.

8. (1) A person wishing to export textile or apparel articles shall, on application, obtain a Certificate of Origin from the Ministry responsible for trade, and complete the certificate of origin following instructions provided in Part II of the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

Application
for
of origin.

(2) The application for a Certificate of Origin shall be in the form prescribed in the Third Schedule to these Regulations;

(3) The Certificate of Origin shall be in the form prescribed in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to these Regulations.

9. A person who intends to produce goods covered by these Regulations shall register with the Ministry responsible for trade before commencing production of those products and shall notify the Ministry when production of products ceases.

Registration.

10. (1) An authorised officer may enter the premises of any enterprise involved in the production or exportation of goods covered by these Regulations—

Verification

(a) to investigate allegations of transshipment; or

(b) to ensure that these Regulations are being complied with.

(2) An authorised officer may, during the investigation be accompanied by United States Customs Service officials.

(3) No person involved in the production or exportation of textiles covered by these regulations shall refuse access to the authorised officer or United States Customs Service officials.

11. (1) A person engaged in the manufacture or export of textile and apparel articles to the United States shall keep production or export records or documents for a period of at least five years.

Production and export records.

PART II

Regulation 8 (1)

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE CERTIFICATE OF ORIGIN

1. Blocks 1 through 5 pertain only to the final article exported to the United States for which preferential treatment may be claimed.
2. Block 1 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the exporter.
3. Block 2 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the producer. If there is more than one producer, attach a list stating the legal name and address (including country) of all additional producers. If this information is confidential, it is acceptable to state "available to customs upon request" in block 2. If the producer and the exporter are the same, state "same" in block 2.
4. Block 3 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the importer.
5. Block 4 should provide full description of each article. The description should be sufficient to relate it to the invoice description and to the description of the article in the international harmonized system. Include the invoice number as shown on the commercial invoice or if the invoice number is not known, include another unique reference number such as the shipping order number.
6. In block 5, insert the letter that designates the preference group (A-I) which applies to the article according to the description contained in the US Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) provision cited on the certificate for that group. The preference group description is only a summary of the US CFR.
7. Blocks 6 through 10 must be completed only when the block in question calls for information that is relevant to the preference group identified in block 5.

8. Block 6 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the fabric producer.
9. Block 7 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the yarn producer.
10. Block 8 should state the legal name and address (including country) of the thread producer.
11. Block 9 should state the name of the folklore article or should state that the article is handloomed or handmade.
12. Block 10, which should be completed only when preference group "H" is inserted in Block 5, should state the name of the fabric or yarn that is not formed in the United States or a beneficiary country and that is not available in commercial quantities in the United States.
13. Block 16A should reflect the date on which the certificate was completed and signed.
14. Block 16B should be completed if the certificate is intended to cover multiple shipments of identical articles as described in Block 4 that are imported into the United States during a specified period of up to one year (see 10.216 (B) (4) (II)). The "from" date is the date on which the certificate became applicable to the article covered by the blanket certificate (this date may be prior to the date reflected in Block 16A). The "to" Date is the date on which the blanket period expires.
15. The certificate may be printed and reproduced locally. If more space is needed to complete the certificate, attach a continuation sheet.

SAM K. KUTESA,
Minister responsible for Finance.
