The Referendum Regulations, 2005.

(Under subsection (1) of section 31 of the Referendum and Other Provisions Act, 2005)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister by subsection (1) of section 31 of the Referendum and Other Provisions Act, 2005, these Regulations are made this 15th day of April, 2005.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Referendum Regulations, 2005. Title.

2. These Regulations shall apply to referenda held under the Act. Application.

3. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires— Inter-pretation.

“Act” means the Referendum and Other Provisions Act, 2005;

“canvassing” means any activity, statement or any other form of expression aimed directly or indirectly at soliciting for votes for a side in a referendum;

“Commission” means the Electoral Commission established by article 60 of the Constitution;

“facilitation” means financial, human and material support given to a side to the referendum out of money approved by Parliament.

4. (1) In accordance with section 12(1) of the Act, any person or group of persons is free to canvass for support of any side in a referendum and may form a referendum committee or a similar structure for the purpose. Canvassing

(2) A referendum committee may form sub-committees to assist it in carrying out its functions.

(3) A referendum committee shall be free to organize the canvassing for its side, and to appoint agents for the purposes of canvassing and voting.

Functions of referendum
committee

5. Subject to the Act, the functions of a referendum committee are—

(a) to give guidance to individuals and sub-committees canvassing for votes for the side;

(b) to co-ordinate the activities of the side and to maintain a smooth canvassing process;

(c) to appoint agents for the purposes of canvassing for votes and for polling; and

(d) to do any other lawful thing to ensure the success of the side at a referendum.

Adherence to laws, etc

6. Every referendum committee shall ensure that while canvassing for votes, the laws, regulations and guidelines governing the referendum process are strictly adhered to by every individual and group supporting the side for that committee.

Established
office

7. Each referendum committee shall have an established office.

Freedom of expression and information

8. Every person shall enjoy complete and unhindered freedom of expression and information in the exercise of the right to canvass under these Regulations subject to the law for the time being in force in Uganda governing freedom of expression and information.

Freedom of assembly

9. Each side shall, alone or together with others, enjoy complete and unhindered freedom of peaceful assembly in canvassing in a referendum.

10. (1) Every side to a referendum shall be free to have the substance of its canvassing reported on radio and television news broadcasts and in any newspapers or other media.

News
broadcasts

(2) In the case of State-owned media, neutrality shall be maintained in the manner of reporting the news concerning the canvassing of all sides.

11. (1) Any person who, at any canvassing meeting acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twelve currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

Misconduct
at canvassing
meeting

(2) The Chairperson if any, of a meeting to which this regulation applies may direct a person who, in the opinion of the Chairperson, is preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is being held, to leave the place, and if that person refuses or fails to leave, the Chairperson may direct a constable or a member of the local defence unit to remove that person from that place and the constable or the member of the local defence unit may thereupon take such steps as are necessary to remove that person.

12. (1) In accordance with section 29(2) of the Act, the Commission shall give equal facilitation to all sides for the purposes of a referendum out of monies approved by Parliament.

Facilitation

(2) Subject to this regulation, any person or side may in addition, solicit for financial assistance from other sources through lawful means.

(3) A side or agent shall not—

(a) obtain, solicit or receive any financial or other assistance for the purpose of the side's canvassing propaganda from any foreign Government, institution, body or person which or who have demonstrated an intention to endanger the security of Uganda;

(b) employ for the purposes of any side's canvassing any financial or other assistance from any Government institution, body or person described in paragraph (a).

(4) Every side or agent shall maintain a record of all assistance obtained or solicited under this regulation.

(5) Each side shall, within thirty days after the referendum is held—

(a) account to the Commission for the facilitation given to that side under sub-regulation (1); and

(b) submit a return to the Commission disclosing all assistance obtained by the side or agent from any source.

(6) The Commission shall have the right at any time to demand the production of any record to be maintained under sub-regulation (4) or any information relating to it.

(7) A person who—

(a) contravenes sub-regulation (3);

(b) refuses or neglects without lawful excuse to produce any record or information demanded by the Commission under sub-regulation (6);

(c) for the purposes of sub-regulation (5) or (6) makes a statement which he or she knows to be false in any material particular;

commits an offence.

(8) A person who commits an offence under sub-regulation (7) is liable on conviction—

(a) in case of an offence under sub-regulation (3), to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both; and

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding twelve currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

13. The Commission may, so far as practicable, apply to referenda under the Act the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections Act, 2001 with necessary modifications.

Application
Parliamentary Elections
Act, 2001

14. The forms specified in the Schedule to these Regulations shall be used in the cases to which they relate and for the purposes to which they relate under the Act.

Forms.

The Political Parties and Organisations (Appeals and Applications) Rules, 2005.

(Under section 21 (4) of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2002)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Chief Justice by section 21 (4) of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2002 and in consultation with the Attorney General these Rules are made this 15th day of December, 2003.

PART I—PRELIMINARY.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Political Parties and Organisations (Appeals and Applications) Rules, 2005. Title

2. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, these Rules apply to appeals to the High Court under sections 6(5), 7(12), 7(13) of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2002 and applications to the Court by the Registrar General under sections 9(6) and 20(1) of that Act. Application

3. In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2002; Inter-pretation

“appeal” means an appeal to the Court to which these Rules apply;

except that—

(a) for the purposes of section 6(5) of the Act, appeal means an application for extension of time; and

(b) for the purposes of sections 7(12) and 7(13) of the Act, appeal means an application for judicial review.

“appellant” means any person aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar-General or under any provision of the Act for which an appeal is provided;

“court” means the High Court;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the High Court;

“respondent” means the Registrar General or the Attorney-General or as the case may be, any person against whom an appeal is brought.

PART II—APPEALS TO THE HIGH COURT.

Form of appeal

4. (1) An appeal under this Part shall be by motion supported by affidavit.

(2) The motion shall be as in Form A of the Schedule to these Rules.

Mode of presenting the appeal

5. (1) Presentation of the motion shall be made by the appellant leaving it in person or, by or through an advocate, if any, named at the foot of the motion, at the office of the Registrar within fourteen days after the decision or as the case may be, within fourteen days after the expiry of the period of six months prescribed by section 6 (3) of the Act.

(2) With the motion shall be delivered ten copies of the motion for use by the High Court and for service on the Registrar General and the Attorney-General.

(3) The appellant or the advocate for the appellant shall, at the time of presenting the motion—

(a) pay a fee of five currency points;

(b) make a deposit of twenty currency points as security for costs.

(4) If sub-rule (3) is not complied with, the appeal shall not be received by the Registrar.

6. (1) Upon presentation of the motion and compliance by the appellant or the advocate of the appellant with the requirements of rule 5, the Registrar shall send a copy of the motion to the Registrar-General and the Attorney-General. Service

(2) Service of documents upon the Registrar-General and Attorney-General shall be carried out as follows—

- (a) the Attorney-General shall be served by personal delivery of documents to a State Attorney in the Attorney-General's chambers;
- (b) the Registrar General shall be served by personal delivery of any documents to a State Attorney in the office of the Registrar General;
- (c) in either case, receipt of the documents shall be acknowledged by a signature and a stamp upon an original copy of any document which shall be returned as proof of service.

7. (1) If the respondent wishes to oppose the appeal, the respondent shall within fourteen days after the motion is served on the Registrar, file an answer to the motion. Answer of respondent
to appeal

(2) The respondent's answer shall be filed with the Registrar, together with ten copies of the answer for use by the court and for service on the appellant.

(3) The answer of the respondent shall be in the form of an affidavit stating the facts upon which the respondent relies in support of the respondent's answer together with any documents or certified copies of any documents relied upon.

8. (1) If the respondent does not intend to oppose the appeal, the respondent shall file a written notice of that intention signed by the respondent, at the office of the Registrar at least three days before the day appointed for the hearing, exclusive of the day on which the notice is filed. Unopposed

(2) The respondent shall provide the Registrar with notice at the time of filing, a sufficient number of copies of the notice for use by the court and for service on the appellant and other parties as may be specified by the court.

(3) The respondent shall, immediately upon filing the notice, serve a copy on the appellant or the advocate of the appellant.

(4) If a notice is filed under sub-rule (1), the Registrar shall immediately serve a copy of the notice on the Attorney-General.

(5) The Registrar shall, as soon as possible, cause a copy of the notice to be published in the Gazette.

Place and time of trial

9. (1) The hearing of an appeal shall take place on such a date and at such time and place as the Court shall direct.

(2) The court shall, as expeditiously as possible, fix the date for hearing of the appeal after due service of the motion on the respondent where the respondent has neither filed an answer to the motion nor filed a notice of intention not to oppose the appeal.

(3) In a case to which sub-rule (2) applies, or where the respondent has filed a notice of intention not to oppose the appeal, the appeal shall, unless withdrawn proceed to be heard and determined ex-parte so far as the respondent is concerned.

(4) Notice of the time and place of hearing the appeal shall be given by the Registrar as soon as possible by sending a copy of the notice to each party to the proceedings as well as the Attorney-General.

(5) The Registrar shall, as soon as possible, cause a copy of the notice to be published in the Gazette.

(6) If notice of hearing the appeal has been given as provided in this rule and before the trial has begun, the Registrar receives notice of the appellant's intention to apply for leave to withdraw the appeal as provided in these Rules, the Registrar shall forthwith, countermand the notice of hearing and the countermand shall be given in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as the notice of trial.

10. The court may, in exceptional cases, on application by a party to an appeal or of its own motion, adjourn the hearing of the appeal from time to time.

Adjourn-
ments

11. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the practice and procedure in respect of the appeals and applications to the High Court under these Rules shall be regulated, as nearly as may be in accordance with the Civil Procedure Act and rules made under that Act relating to the trial of a suit in the High Court with such modifications as the court may consider necessary in the interests of justice and expedition of the proceedings.

Procedure
on appeal

Cap. 71.

(2) The court may also, apply in respect of any application under section 9 (6) or 20 (1) or 20 (2) of the Act the provisions referred to in sub-rule (1) with such modifications as the court may consider necessary in the interest of justice and expedition of the proceedings.

12. Where more appeals than one are presented in relation to the same decision or matter, the court may direct that some or all of the appeals be dealt with as one appeal.

Consolidation of appeals

13. The court may, of its own motion or on oral application by any party to the proceedings and upon such terms as the justice of the case may require, enlarge or abridge the time appointed by these Rules for doing any act, if in the opinion of the court there exist such special circumstances as make it expedient to do so.

Enlargement or abridgement of time

14. (1) An appeal shall not be withdrawn except with the leave of the court and after such notice has been given as the court may direct.

Withdrawal of appeal

(2) Where there is more than one appellant, no application for leave to withdraw shall be made except with the consent of the other appellants.

(3) Subject to sub-rule (1), an application for leave to withdraw an appeal shall be supported by an affidavit of the appellant and the advocate, if any, stating to the best of their knowledge and belief that no agreement or terms of any kind has or have been made, or undertaking made in relation to the appeal or, if any lawful agreement has been made, stating the terms of the agreement.

(4) The appellant shall, when filing the application for leave to withdraw, give to the Registrar a sufficient number of copies for use by the court and for service on the Attorney-General and the Registrar General.

(5) The Registrar shall, as soon as possible upon receipt of an application under this rule, cause to be published in the Gazette a notice in Form B in the Schedule to these Rules.

(6) If the court gives leave for the withdraw of the appeal, the court shall make a report to the Registrar General and the Attorney-General stating the reasons for the withdrawal.

(7) If the appeal is withdrawn, the appellant shall be liable for the costs of the respondent.

Irregularities

15. No proceedings upon an appeal shall be defeated by any formal objection or by the miscarriage of any notice or any other document sent by the Registrar to any party to the appeal.

Costs

16. (1) All costs of and incidental to the presentation of the appeal and the proceedings consequent on the appeal shall be defrayed by the parties to the appeal in such manner and in such proportions as the court may determine.

(2) Subject to sub-rule (1), where costs are awarded to a party against the appellant in proceedings under these Rules, the deposit made by the appellant as security for costs under rule 5, shall be applicable in payment of the sum ordered, but otherwise, shall be refunded to the appellant.

PART III—APPLICATIONS TO THE COURT

17. (1) An application to the court by the Registrar-General for an order to de-register a political party or organisation under section 9(6) shall be by notice of motion supported by an affidavit stating the grounds or reasons for the application.
