Asst. Registrar of Trademarks.

General Notice No. 469 of 2010.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT.
(Cap. 83).
NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that any person who has grounds to oppose the registration of any of the marks advertised herein may within sixty days from the date of this Gazette, lodge a Notice of opposition on Trade Mark Form No. 6 together with a fee of Shs. 4000 in case of National applicants or US$ 250 in case of Foreign applicants. The period of lodging Notice of opposition may be extended in suitable cases by the Registrar as he thinks fit upon such terms as he may direct. Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant so that he may have an opportunity to withdraw his application before the expense of opposition proceedings is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by the opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant. Representations of the marks herein advertised can be inspected at the office of the Registrar of Trade Marks, Amamu House, Plot No. 5B George Street, P.O. Box 6848, Kampala.

9. Benefits of surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a Vice President who dies in office.

The benefits specified in the Ninth Schedule to this Act, shall be enjoyed together by the surviving spouse or spouses and the dependent children of a Vice President who dies while in office until the death of the spouse or spouses or in the case of the dependent children, until they attain the age of eighteen years or until they die whichever is the earlier.

10. Benefits of surviving spouse or spouses of a deceased retired Vice President.

The benefits specified in the Tenth Schedule to this Act, shall be enjoyed together by the surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a Vice President who dies in retirement until the death of the spouse or spouses or in the case of the dependent children until they attain the age of eighteen years or until they die whichever is the earlier.

11. Benefits for a Prime Minister ceasing to hold office.

(1) A Prime Minister who ceases to hold office shall be granted the benefits specified in the Eleventh Schedule to this Act.

(2) A Prime Minister to whom subsection (1) applies shall not qualify for a grant of benefits if he or she is removed from office on any of the following grounds—

- (a) abuse of his or her office;
- (b) misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (c) conviction for subversive activities against Uganda or another country;
- (d) conviction for extra judicial killing;
- (e) conviction for a crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude; or
- (f) conviction for stealing, money laundering, fraud or any similar unlawful activity.

12. Benefits of surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a Prime Minister who dies in office.

The benefits specified in the Twelfth Schedule to this Act, shall be enjoyed together by the surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a Prime Minister who dies while in office until the death of the spouse or spouses or in the case of the dependent children until they attain the age of eighteen years or until they die whichever is the earlier.

13. Benefits of surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a deceased retired Prime Minister.

The benefits specified in the Thirteenth Schedule to this Act, shall be enjoyed together by the surviving spouse or spouses and dependent children of a Prime Minister who dies in retirement until the death of the spouse or spouses or in the case of the dependent children, until they attain the age of eighteen years or until they die whichever is the earlier.

14. Funeral benefits of President.

Where a President dies while in office he or she shall be accorded a state funeral and he or she shall be accorded the benefits specified in the Fourteenth Schedule to this Act.

15. Funeral benefits of Vice President.

Where a Vice President dies while in office he or she shall be accorded a state funeral and he or she shall be accorded the benefits specified in the Fourteenth Schedule to this Act.

16. Funeral benefits of the Prime Minister.

Where a Prime Minister dies while in office he or she is entitled to an official funeral and shall be accorded the benefits specified in the Fourteenth Schedule to this Act.

17. Government's contribution towards funeral expenses.

Where a President, Vice President or Prime Minister dies while in office, the Government shall contribute thirty percent of the gross annual salary of the President, Vice President or Prime Minister towards the funeral expenses.

18. Funeral benefits of spouses.

Where the spouse of a sitting President, Vice President or Prime Minister dies, the Government shall contribute thirty percent of the annual salary of the President, Vice President or Prime Minister whichever the case may be.

19. Vice President acting as President to enjoy benefits of President.

Where a Vice President acts as a President for a period of six months or more, he or she shall be entitled to the salary and allowance of the President for the period he or she acts as a President.

20. Revocation of appointment of Vice President or Prime Minister.

(1) Where the President revokes the appointment of a Vice President or a Prime Minister, the Vice President or Prime Minister shall only enjoy the benefits under this Act upon retirement, even where they have been reassigned other Government duties.

(2) Where the Vice President or Prime Minister, becomes a Member of Parliament, he or she shall benefit from the greater of the benefits, under this Act and those enjoyable by a Member of Parliament but not both.

21. Misconduct after retirement.

Where a retired President, Vice President or Prime Minister is serving a sentence of imprisonment the benefits they are enjoying shall be suspended until they serve their sentence.

22. Ownership of house.

The State shall for the purposes of the Second and Fifth Schedules provide a house of appropriate quality, design and location, the ownership of which shall vest in Government.

23. Payment of benefits on resignation.

For the avoidance of doubt—

- (a) the benefits specified in Part B of the Fifth Schedule to this Act shall be payable in respect of a President who resigns from office.
- (b) the benefits specified in Part B of the Eighth Schedule to this Act shall be payable in respect of a Vice President who resigns from office.
- (c) the benefits specified in Part B of the Eleventh Schedule to this Act shall be payable in respect of a Prime Minister who resigns from office.

- (d) the benefits payable to a spouse or spouses and dependent children of a deceased retired President, deceased retired Vice President or deceased retired Prime Minister under this Act, shall respectively be payable to the spouse or spouses or dependent children of a deceased President, Vice President or a Prime Minister who ceases to hold office by resignation.

27. Disapplication of the Parliament (Remuneration of Members) Act.

(1) The Parliament (Remuneration of Members) Act, shall not apply to any period in respect of which a person is paid or granted any salary, allowances or benefits under this Act.

(2) Nothing in this section shall deprive a person of a right which has accrued to him or her under the Act referred to in subsection (1) in respect of any period before the application of this Act to that person.

(3) Parliament may, by resolution, make such adjustments as may be necessary to accommodate any person who acts temporarily in the office of President, Vice President or Prime Minister to this Act.

28. Amendment of Schedules.

(1) The Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for finance, shall amend the First Schedule.

(2) Parliament may, by resolution, amend the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelveth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Schedules to this Act.

29. Application of the Parliament (Remuneration of Members) Act.

For the avoidance of doubt, section 3 of the Parliament (Remuneration of Members) Act shall continue to apply to a President or Vice President who ceased to hold that office before the commencement of the 1995 Constitution.

30. Application of sections 2, 3 and 4.

For the avoidance of doubt, sections 2, 3 and 4 of this Act, as the case may be, apply only to a President, Vice President and Prime Minister under the 1995 Constitution.

31. Benefits to be granted collectively.

For the avoidance of doubt, the benefits of the spouse or spouses of a person who dies while holding the office of President, Vice-President and Prime Minister shall be granted to the spouse or spouses collectively for life.

32. Repeal and transitional provision.

(1) The Presidential Emoluments and Benefits Act is repealed.

(2) Without prejudice to the Interpretation Act, the repeal of the Presidential Emoluments and Benefits Act shall not prejudice any right to which a person was entitled under that Act immediately before the commencement of this Act.
