2014 No. 82

The Uganda Tourism (Classification of Accommodation Facilities and Restaurants) Regulations, 2014.

(Under section 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, Act No. 2 of 2008)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for tourism, by section 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, and in consultation with the Board, these Regulations are made this 28th day of June, 2013.

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Uganda Tourism (Classification of Accommodation Facilities and Restaurants) Regulations, 2014.

2. Interpretation.

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008;

“accommodation facility” includes a town hotel, vacation hotel, lodge, villa, cottage, serviced apartment or motel;

“Board” means the Uganda Tourism Board continued in existence under section 3 of the Act, Act No. 2 of 2008;

“classification inspector or assessor” means a person trained in quality assurance employed or contracted by the Board to carry out grading of a facility;

“cottage or villa” means an establishment, characterised by a cluster of lettable units for holiday accommodation with or without self-catering facilities which include residential premises used for holiday making by owners, friends or relatives, with or without charge;

“currency point” has the meaning assigned to it in Schedule 1;

“establishment” includes an accommodation facility and a restaurant;

“guest house” means an establishment offering modest and limited accommodation or catering facilities;

“lodge” means an accommodation establishment located within or near a natural habitat rich in fauna and flora, in which the majority of clients are leisure seekers;

“motel” means an accommodation establishment, located along a highway or motor way, catering mainly for motorists;

“restaurant” means a commercial catering establishment offering an extensive range or specialized cuisine, where meals are served, usually on a flexible time arrangement, and includes such variations as café, coffee shop and similar outlets.

“serviced apartment” means a commercial establishment, offering accommodation in a self-contained unit, with or without a self-catering facility;

“town hotel” means an accommodation establishment located within or near an urban center or area, where the majority of clients are business travellers;

“vacation hotel” means an accommodation establishment located within or near a holiday attraction area and in which the majority of clients are holiday makers.

3. Inspection for purpose of grading.

(1) The Board shall carry out detailed inspection of an accommodation facility or restaurant for the purpose of classification.

(2) Notwithstanding sub regulation (1), where, during the annual inspection, the condition of a facility is found to have deteriorated, the Board may cause a re - classification exercise to be conducted on that facility.

4. Classification inspector or assessor.

The Board shall employ a classification inspector or assessor to carry out the classification exercise.

5. Classification procedure.

(1) An establishment which is visited for the purposes of classification shall be assessed by at least three inspectors or assessors who shall, be accompanied by a senior member of the management of the accommodation facility or restaurant.

(2) The inspector or assessor shall point out to the accompanying member of the management of the establishment any shortcoming noticed in the process of assessing the facilities and services in an establishment.

(3) The member of the management of the establishment shall append his or her signature on the classification assessment sheet at the end of the exercise.

(4) The Board shall communicate the results to the establishment and shall also print the results of the classification exercise in a newspaper of wide circulation and in the national gazette.

(5) The Board shall prepare and issue a certificate of classification and a plaque to the classified establishment after the communication of the results of the classification exercise, except for an establishment that raises an objection to the out come of the classification exercise.

(6) The certificate of classification and the plaque shall entitle the establishment to represent and market itself in line with the star rating awarded.

(7) The establishment shall meet the cost for the issuance of certificate of classification and the plaque.

6. Dissatisfaction with results of classification exercise.

(1) A person who is not satisfied with the results of the classification exercise, may, within fourteen days from communication of the results, write to the Board seeking clarification on the unexpected classification outcome.

(2) A person satisfied with the results of the classification, may rectify the noted shortcomings after which he or she may request for re-classification.

(3) A person who requests for re classification under sub regulation (1) shall meet the cost for the re classification.

(4) A person who is not satisfied with the results of the classification, may appeal in writing to the Minister, setting out the grounds for the appeal.

(5) The Minister shall hear both parties and make a decision which shall be final.

7. Star rating features.

The Board shall determine the star rating of an establishment as specified in the Schedule 2.

8. Classification of accommodation facilities.

(1) Town hotels, vacation hotels, lodges, tented camps, villas, cottages and serviced apartments shall be classified into five classes denoted by stars.

(2) For purposes of sub regulation (1), the five star shall be the highest class and one star shall be the lowest class.

9. Classification of motels and restaurants.

(1) Motels and restaurants shall be classified into three classes, denoted by stars.

(2) For purposes of sub regulation (1), three star shall be the highest class and one star shall be the lowest class.

10. List of essential items.

The list of essential items for each type of the accommodation facility and restaurant is set out in Schedule 3.

11. Minimum score.

The minimum score required for each class of hotel or restaurant is set out in Schedule 4.

12. Standard for classification of an accommodation facility or restaurant.

The standard for classification of—

- (a) a vacation hotel is set out in Schedule 5;
- (b) a town hotel is set out in Schedule 6;
- (c) a lodge or a tented camp is set out in Schedule 7;
- (d) a villa, cottage or serviced apartment is set out in the Schedule 8;
- (e) a motel is set out in Schedule 9; or
