Re: Letter to officially inform you that Mrs Winnie Meuter-Adukule and Mr John Cross have no authority whatsoever to act on behalf of First Mining Company Limited, or advise on any items pertaining to First Mining Company Ltd.

Dear Madam,

We write to you as the Directors and 100% Shareholders of First Mining Company Ltd.

We recently took the decision to enter voluntary liquidation, appointing Deogra & Co. to liquidate the company in an equitable and fair fashion. This included withdrawing a request for a Ministers appeal regarding former ML1047, on the grounds determined in a letter to your office, ref DC/11/14/012, dated 18th November, 2014.

It has since come to our understanding however that Mrs Winnie Meuter-Adukule and Mr John Cross have been falsely claiming to act on behalf of First Mining Company Ltd., either pertaining to be Shareholders, or direct creditors, and pursuing issues counterproductive to the equitable liquidation of the Company.

This letter serves to officially inform you that Mrs Winnie Meuter-Adukule and Mr John Cross have no authority whatsoever to act on behalf of First Mining Company Limited, or advise on any items pertaining to First Mining Company Ltd. Further, they are not Shareholders, direct creditors, or by any other measure allowable claimants to the control, or assets, of First Mining Company Limited.

We regret any time wasted on your behalf as a result of the actions of these individuals. We kindly request any communications from them, or parties acting on their behalf, are disregarded, both historically and subsequent to this letter, for the above reasons. We further request they are forwarded to our Kampala office for legal consideration.

Yours Sincerely
