2019 No. 2.

THE ACCOUNTANTS (PRACTICE) REGULATIONS, 2019

ARRANGEMENT OF REGULATIONS

Regulation

1. Title.
2. Name of accounting firm.
3. Inspection of accounting firm.
4. Fit and proper assessment.
5. Granting annual licenses to accounting firms.
6. Monitoring compliance with professional quality assurance standards.
7. Ceasing to practise accountancy.

SCHEDULES

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2019 No. 2.

The Accountants (Practice) Regulations, 2019.

(Under section 53 of the Accountants Act, 2013)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Minister responsible for finance by section 53 of the Accountants Act, 2013, and on the recommendation of the Council, these Regulations are made this 19th day of June, 2018.

1. Title.

These regulations may be cited as the Accountants (Practice) Regulations, 2019.

2. Name of accounting firm.

(1) A practising accountant who intends to practice as an accounting firm shall apply to the Council for approval of the name.

(2) The name of accounting firm shall—

- (a) comply with the requirements of the laws under which the accounting firm is to be registered;
- (b) be consistent with the dignity of the accountancy profession;
- (c) not be misleading or confused with the name of another firm;
- (d) not make any reference, actual or implied, to any symbolic, cultural, political, religious, sectarian or discriminatory classification or association;
- (e) not be offensive; or
- (f) not be directly or indirectly associated with or suggest any connection with any Government agency, parastatal or non-government organisation.

3. Inspection of accounting firm.

(1) The Council shall inspect an accounting firm that applies for a licence or for renewal of a licence for—

- (a) the suitability of the premises of the accounting firm and the appropriateness of the signage;
- (b) the reference books and other documents and records of the accounting firm including the title and description of the accounting firm on its letter head;
- (c) evidence of professional indemnity insurance; and
- (d) a fit and proper assessment of the practising accountants of the accounting firm.

(2) The Council shall during an inspection—

- (a) review any information and data relevant for the inspection of the accounting firm; and
- (b) make appropriate inquiries from staff of the accounting firm.

(3) The Council shall protect the confidentiality of information obtained during an inspection.

(4) The accounting firm shall prepare for an inspection and shall cooperate with the Council in all matters of the inspection.

(5) The Council shall, within two weeks after the inspection, issue a certificate of inspection of an accounting firm that satisfies the requirements of subregulation (1).

(6) An inspection by the Council shall be in accordance with the guidelines in Schedule 1 to these Regulations.

4. Fit and proper assessment.

(1) The Council shall before issuing a certificate of practice to a practising accountant or an annual license to an accounting firm, conduct a fit and proper assessment of the applicant for the certificate or license, respectively, to determine that the person is suitable to practice accountancy.

(2) The Council shall in determining whether a person is fit and proper to be a practising accountant, take into account—

- (a) the competence and soundness of judgment for the person for the fulfilment of the responsibilities of a practising accountant;
- (b) the integrity and character of the person;
- (c) the general probity of the person;
- (d) the previous conduct and activities of the person in relation to accountancy, business and financial matters;
- (e) the outcome of any investigation with regard to the person in any country by a Government agency, professional association or other regulatory body; and
- (f) any other requirements determined by the Council.

(3) A person shall be deemed not to be fit and proper to be a practising accountant where the person—

- (a) has been found guilty by a court of law in Uganda or elsewhere, of a serious criminal offence or an offence involving fraud or dishonesty;
- (b) is an undischarged bankrupt; or
- (c) has been dismissed from the membership of a board of directors or the management of a company due to dishonesty, negligence, incompetence or mismanagement or has been barred from holding public office.

5. Granting annual licenses to accounting firms.

(1) Where a practising accountant intends to practice as an accounting firm, the practising accountant shall apply to the Council for an annual license using the Application Form prescribed in Schedule 2 to these Regulations.

(2) An accounting firm shall have appropriate professional indemnity insurance cover for the accounting firm and the Council shall not grant an annual licence to an accounting firm that does not have professional indemnity insurance.

(3) The professional indemnity insurance cover shall be appropriate for the business of the accounting firm where the accounting firm is amalgamated or merged with another accounting firm or is reorganised in any other way.

(4) An accounting firm shall conspicuously display its annual licence at its premises.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, a holder of a certificate of practice shall practice accountancy with only one accounting firm.

6. Monitoring compliance with professional quality assurance standards.

(1) The Quality Assurance Board shall every three years, monitor each practising accountant, for compliance with the professional quality assurance standards published by the Council.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the Board shall determine whether a practising accountant has—

(a) maintained an adequate system of quality control and complied with it; and

(b) in the execution of the assignments of the clients, adhered to the professional quality assurance standards published by the Council.

(3) The monitoring process shall be conducted at the office of the practising accountant.

(4) The Quality Assurance Board shall keep confidential the material and information obtained during a monitoring process, except where, by law, this information is required to be disclosed or where the concerned practising accountant consents to the disclosure.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, a practising accountant shall—

- (a) provide to the Quality Assurance Board any information and explanations requested for the monitoring process; and
- (b) provide access to the documents and records of the practising accountant.

(6) The Quality Assurance Board shall for each monitoring process, prepare a report of the findings, assessment made and recommendations, including the necessary corrective actions and improvements to be made to the quality control policies and procedures of the practising accountant.

(7) The report shall be made available to the practising accountant.

(8) The Board shall undertake follow up action to confirm whether the findings and recommendations in the quality review report have been properly addressed and the necessary corrective action has been undertaken.

(9) Where appropriate, the Board may, based on the report, refer a practising accountant to the disciplinary committee for appropriate disciplinary action.

7. Ceasing to practise accountancy.

(1) The Council shall request a practicing accountant or an accounting firm whose registration and certificate are suspended or an accountant whose name is struck off the roll of accountants to resign from all the existing engagements of the practising accountant or accounting firm, as the case may be.

(2) The Council may recover, from any person, any fees due to the Council from a practising accountant or an accounting firm whose registration and certificate are suspended or whose name is struck off the roll of accountants, as the case may be.

(3) Where a practising accountant, practising as a sole proprietor, ceases to practice accountancy, the accounting firm of the practising accountant shall cease to hold an annual license and shall be removed from the register of accounting firms.

(4) The practising accountant of an accounting firm that ceases to hold an annual license—

- (a) shall respond to any inquiries from the Council in connection with any activities of the accounting firm before it ceased to hold the annual licence and shall keep the documents and information relating to the activities of the accounting firm, for a period of at least seven years; and
- (b) may, where necessary, be subjected to disciplinary action for professional misconduct during the time the accounting firm held an annual licence.

(5) A practising accountant or an accounting firm that ceases to practice accountancy shall have the appropriate professional indemnity insurance cover of at least twelve months after ceasing to practice accountancy.

(6) A practising accountant who wishes to cease practising accountancy, and who wishes to become a retired member, shall apply to the Council to be registered as a retired member and shall submit with the application, his or her certificate of practice.

(7) Where, for any reason, the Council believes that public interest would be better served if the accountant who wishes to retire is instead suspended from the membership of the Institute or that the name of the member is struck off the roll of accountants, the Council shall reject the application and refer the matter to the disciplinary committee for the necessary sanction.

SCHEDULES

- (h) evidence of undertaking continuing professional development by the practising accountant of the accounting firm.

3. Titles and descriptions of accounting firms.

An accounting firm shall have letter head which shall—

- (a) state the name of the accounting firm as it appears in the register of accounting firms;
- (b) bear the registration number of the accounting firm and a statement that “the firm is licensed and regulated by the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Uganda”; and
- (c) bear the name of the practising accountant of the accounting firm.
