“institution of learning” means a school, college, university or other institution where education or learning is provided;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for disability affairs.

(2) This Act is with regard to mental disability, subject to the Mental Health Act, 2019.

2. Determination of a person with a disability

Whenever a question arises whether a person has a disability or not or where court so requires, a medical doctor with the relevant expertise or an expert appointed by the Council, shall carry out an examination to confirm the disability.

PART II—RIGHTS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES AND NON DISCRIMINATION.

3. Respect and promotion of rights and freedoms of persons with disabilities

(1) A person with a disability shall enjoy the fundamental and other human rights and freedoms enshrined in the Constitution.

(2) The Government and all persons in Uganda shall respect, uphold and promote the fundamental and other human rights and freedoms of persons with disabilities enshrined in the Constitution and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and its optional protocols.

(3) Subject to this Act, the Government and all persons in Uganda shall enforce and implement the laws of Uganda without discrimination on the basis of disability.

4. The right to enjoy family life

(1) A person with a disability has a right to a home, to found a family, adopt, be a guardian or trustee of a child in accordance with the relevant laws and is entitled to—

- (a) have sexual and other intimate relationships;
- (b) equal rights at and in marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution;

- (c) raise his or her child and shall not be separated from his or her child except in accordance with the law and best interests of the child.

(2) A child with a disability shall not be separated from his or her family except in accordance with the law and best interests of the child.

(3) A child with a disability shall—

- (a) enjoy all the rights enshrined in the Children Act, Cap. 59 on an equal basis as a child without a disability; and
- (b) have the right to know and be cared for by his or her parents or guardian.

(4) A parent or guardian of a child with a disability shall have the duty to raise the child and ensure the child's proper upbringing and development.

(5) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or a term of imprisonment not exceeding twelve months, or both.

5. Prohibition of inhuman and degrading treatment for persons with disabilities

(1) A person with a disability shall not be subjected to any form of torture or cruel or degrading treatment.

(2) A person with a disability shall not without his or her free and informed consent be subjected to—

- (a) medical or scientific research;
- (b) harmful traditional or cultural practices; or
- (c) forced sterilisation.

(3) A person who subjects a person with a disability to a condition specified in this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

6. Non discrimination in the provision of education services

(1) An institution of learning shall not discriminate against a learner with a disability, on the basis of the disability.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where an institution of learning is established for learners of a specific disability, and the learner does not have that disability.

(3) An institution of learning discriminates against a learner with a disability where—

- (a) on the basis of the disability, the institution of learning refuses to accept an application for admission, made by the learner with a disability who is otherwise qualified for admission;
- (b) the conditions for admission to the institution of learning exclude the admission of learners with disabilities;
- (c) the institution of learning denies or limits access of a learner with a disability, to the available facilities and services;
- (d) the institution of learning expels a learner with a disability, on the basis of the disability; or
- (e) the institution of learning subjects the learner with a disability to any unfair treatment, on the basis of the disability.

(4) An institution of learning that enrolls a learner with a disability shall—

- (a) provide an inclusive education system for the learner; and
- (b) make the necessary structural adjustments to the buildings and premises of the institution of learning, to enable access to the building or premises by a learner with a disability, within three months from the date of admission of the learner.

(5) In addition to the requirements under subsection (4), an institution of learning which is owned or aided by Government that enrolls a learner with a disability, shall provide sign language services, learning instructional materials and assistive devices, suitable for the learner and required for examinations by the learner.

(6) A parent or guardian of a child with a disability has the responsibility of enrolling the child in an institution of learning or ensuring that the child is enrolled in an institution of learning.

(7) Where the child referred to in subsection (6) is to be enrolled in an institution of learning with an inclusive education system, the institution of learning shall, where applicable, be of the same or comparable standard as that in which the other children under the care of the parent or guardian are enrolled.

(8) An institution of learning that enrolls a learner with a disability shall provide sports facilities and equipment specific to the needs of the learner with a disability and put in place measures to facilitate the participation of learners with disabilities in sports and other co-curricular activities.

(9) A person who willfully prevents a child with a disability from attaining education commits an offence, and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both.

(10) In this section "inclusive education system" means a system where a learner with a disability is taught together with the other learners, in the same environment, and where, if required under subsection (5), extra support is given to the learner with a disability.

7. Non discrimination in the provision of health services

(1) A health unit shall not discriminate against a person with a disability, on the basis of the disability.

(2) A health unit shall—

- (a) comply with the requirements of section 10 (1) and (2);
- (b) provide wheelchairs and accessible examination tables for persons with disabilities; and
- (c) provide labour beds for expectant women who are persons with disabilities.

(3) A health unit discriminates against a person with a disability where—

- (a) on the basis of the disability, the person is denied admission or treatment at the health unit;
- (b) the health unit does not comply with the requirements of section 10 (1) and (2) and is not accessible by persons with disabilities; or
- (c) the health unit does not provide accessible labour beds, examination tables or wheel chairs for persons with disabilities.

(4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), “accessible labour bed” and “accessible examination table” means a labour bed or an examination table that is appropriate for the disability of the person using the bed or table.

(5) A parent or guardian of a child with a disability, shall ensure that the child receives required immunisation and medical treatment.

(6) A child with a disability shall be immunised and receive medical treatment at health unit of the same or comparable standard as those to which the other children under the care of the parent or guardian are immunised and receive treatment.

(7) The Government shall provide persons with albinism with skin protective creams and persons with disabilities with assistive devices at no cost or subsidised prices.

8. Habilitation and rehabilitation for persons with disabilities

(1) The Minister responsible for health and the Minister responsible for education shall, in consultation with the Council and the Minister, provide habilitation and rehabilitation services and programmes for the persons with disabilities.

(2) The Government shall offer counselling services and inform persons with disabilities and their parents or guardians, caregivers and the members of communities where persons with disabilities are resident, on the habilitation and rehabilitation services that are available for persons with disabilities.

9. Non discrimination in employment

(1) An employer shall not discriminate against a person with a disability, on the basis of the disability of that person.

(2) An employer shall—

- (a) in any advertisement for a job, where appropriate, encourage persons with disabilities to apply for the job;
- (b) provide an applicant with a disability who applies for a job, reasonable accommodation necessary to undertake the job interview; and
- (c) provide an employee with a disability reasonable accommodation in the performance of the job or task.

(3) An employer discriminates against a person with a disability where—

- (a) on the basis of the disability, the employer refuses to accept an application made by the person with a disability, who is otherwise qualified for the job;
- (b) the conditions for applying for the job or the selection criteria exclude applications by persons with disabilities;

- (c) the assessment of the performance of an employee with a disability is conducted in a manner that does not correctly gauge the performance of that employee;
- (d) the remuneration or benefits given to an employee with a disability is less than that given to the other employees who perform similar tasks;
- (e) on the basis of the disability, an employee with a disability is not considered for promotion, on job training, scholarships or any other benefits that are accorded to the other employees;
- (f) on the basis of the disability, an employee with a disability is transferred from a job or task which he or she is capable of performing to another job or task which he or she is unable to perform due to his or her disability;
- (g) the employer does not provide reasonable accommodation required by the employee with a disability to perform his or her job or tasks;
- (h) the employer conducts a medical examination on an employee with a disability, where the examination is not performed on the other employees; or
- (i) the services of employment of an employee with a disability, are terminated on the basis of the disability.

(4) In this section “reasonable accommodation” means necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments where needed to ensure that an employee who is a person with a disability can enjoy or exercise all human rights and fundamental freedoms on an equal basis with others and includes tools, equipment, working environment and where necessary, a modified work schedule.

(5) An employer with employees with disabilities shall be allowed deductions of up to ten percent on the chargeable income, as may be provided for by the Income Tax Act.

(6) The Minister shall, in consultation with the Council and employers' organisations, determine the quota of persons with disabilities workforce for employers, and by statutory instrument publish the agreed quota at least once in every two years.

(7) An employer who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

10. Accessibility to buildings

(1) An owner or a person in charge of a building to which the public is allowed access shall, subject to the requirements of the laws on building standards and other relevant laws, provide appropriate access for persons with disabilities to the building.

(2) In subsection (1) "provide appropriate accessibility for persons with disabilities, to the building" means—

- (a) putting in place accessible and easy to find entrances which are connected to accessible pathways and parking areas;
- (b) providing safe and accessible toilets, urinals and bathrooms;
- (c) providing safe and well dimensioned staircases with appropriate railing, accessible elevators; and
- (d) where necessary, providing ramps.

(3) An owner or a person in charge of a building to which the public is allowed access shall provide parking space for vehicles driven by persons with disabilities or by drivers of persons with disabilities.
