STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2020 No. 95.

The Political Parties and Organisations (Conduct of Meetings and Elections) Regulations, 2020

(Under sections 10 and 27(1) of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2005)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for justice and constitutional affairs by section 27 of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2005, and with the approval of Parliament, these Regulations are made this 23rd day of July, 2020.

1. Title

These Regulations may be cited as the Political Parties and Organisations (Conduct of Meetings and Elections) Regulations, 2020.

2. Application

These Regulations apply—

- (a) to a political party or organisation that intends to conduct a meeting or elections during a period when public health restrictions relating to infectious disease notified under sections 10, 11, and 27 of the Public Health Act, Cap. 281 exist in Uganda; and
- (b) to exigencies posed by a state of emergency or a state of war in Uganda or in any part of Uganda that may affect the holding of normal political party or organisation activities.

3. Objectives

The objective of these Regulations is—

- (a) to safeguard the health of participants in activities organised by a political party or organisation;

- (b) to enable a political party or organisation to elect leaders and sponsor candidates for nomination for general elections without compromising the health and safety of its members or the public;
- (c) to enable a political party or organisation to elect leaders and sponsor candidates for nomination for general elections within the limitations imposed by the Public Health Act and the Rules made thereunder relating to public health restrictions or measures.

4. Interpretation

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2005;

“executive committee” means the governing body of a political party or organisation by whatever name called;

“infectious disease” means any disease which can be communicated directly or indirectly by any person suffering from it to any other person;

“phased election” means the conduct of an election that would otherwise be held on the same day or at the same time for the same geographical area, on different days or different times covering smaller units of the same geographical area;

“public health restrictions” means measures imposed by law to avert the spread of infectious diseases which prevent or restrict the holding of meetings, elections, conferences or other gatherings in such numbers or in such form as is required under the constitution of a political party or organisation;

“resolution by circulation” means a written resolution circulated to members, who are not physically located together, as are entitled to vote on a matter contained in the resolution which provides for the resolution to be signed to signify assent or dissent on the same document or in counterpart on a separate document;

“sponsored candidate” means a candidate sponsored by a political party or organisation for an election conducted by the Electoral Commission;

“virtual meeting” means a meeting held with the use of video or audio technology allowing members, regardless of their location, to share information and data in real-time without being physically located together.

5. Internal organisation of political parties and organisations

(1) A political party or organisation shall, in the conduct of its internal affairs, in addition to complying with articles 71 and 72 of the Constitution, adhere to the Public Health Act and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases.

(2) In accordance with section 10 of the Act, and notwithstanding any provision in the constitution of a political party or organisation, a political party may, where acting in accordance with its constitution would contravene the provisions of the Public Health Act and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases, hold a meeting or an election for members of its executive committee, members of its organs or sponsored candidates by any of the following means—

- (a) virtual meetings;
- (b) resolutions by circulation;
- (c) phased elections;

- (d) secret ballot;
- (e) open ballot;
- (f) lining up behind the candidate of choice;
- (g) election by an electoral college comprising members of an organ of the political party or organisation;
- (h) election by an organ of a political party or organisation, other than that designated by the constitution of the political party or organisation, whose membership is of a number that can lawfully convene without contravening the provisions of the Public Health Act and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases;
- (i) any combination of the means specified in paragraphs (a) to (h) or any other method of meeting or conducting an election approved by the Electoral Commission of a political party or organisation.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision in the constitution of a political party or organisation, the executive committee shall have the power to employ the method of election or meeting in subregulation (2), that allows the holding of the election or meeting without contravening the provisions of the Public Health Act and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases.

(4) Subject to section 10(3) of the Act, the executive committee of a political party or organisation may extend the term of office of elected members of organs of the political party or organisation, other than the term of the executive committee, where it is not practical to hold elections for the membership of such organs as result of the restrictions or other measures imposed by the Public Health Act and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases.

(5) The extension of the term of office of elected members of organs of the political party or organisation referred to in subregulation (4), shall be for a period not exceeding six months from the date of lifting of the restrictions or other measures imposed by the Public Health Act, and rules made thereunder for the control of infectious diseases.

6. Validity of elections and resolutions

(1) An election held under these Regulations shall be considered valid, as if it had been held at a duly convened meeting, convention or conference organised by a political party or organisation under the constitution of its political party or organisation.

(2) A resolution passed under these Regulations shall be considered valid, as if it had been passed at a duly convened meeting or convention under the constitution of its political party or organisation.

7. Termination

These Regulations shall terminate upon the notification, by the Minister responsible for health, of the expiration of the public health restrictions.

PROFESSOR EPHRAIM KAMUNTU,
Minister of Justice and Constitutional Affairs.

1. Amendment of Cap. 140.
2. Amendment of section 18A of principal Act.
3. Amendment of section 21 of principal Act.
4. Amendment of section 22 of principal Act.
5. Amendment of section 23 of principal Act.
6. Amendment of section 27 of principal Act.
7. Amendment of section 30 of principal Act.
8. Repeal of section 31 of principal Act.
9. Repeal of section 32 of principal Act.

THE ELECTORAL COMMISSION (AMENDMENT)
ACT, 2020

An Act to amend the Electoral Commission Act, Cap. 140 to provide for the use of technology in the management of elections; to re-designate registrars as district election administrators; to provide for the appointment of assistant returning officers by the commission; to require the commission to publish in the Gazette, places at which voters' registers and polling stations are to be displayed and to align the Electoral Commission Act with the Constitution as amended by the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 2018.

DATE OF ASSENT: 17th June, 2020.

Date of Commencement: 27th July, 2020.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. Amendment of Cap. 140.

The Electoral Commission Act, in this Act referred to as the principal Act, is amended in section 12 by inserting immediately after subsection (1) the following—

- “(1a) The commission may, in the exercise of its powers under subsection (1), adopt technology in the management of elections.

- (1b) Notwithstanding the general effect of subsection (1a), the commission shall put in place an electronic display system at every tallying center on which the votes being tallied shall be displayed to the general public.
- (1c) The Minister shall, in consultation with the commission, by statutory instrument, make regulations prescribing the manner in which technology will be used in the management of elections.
- (1d) The statutory instrument referred to in subsection (1c) shall be laid before Parliament for information."

2. Amendment of section 18A of principal Act.

Section 18A of the principal Act is amended by inserting at the end of the section the following—

"or in the case of a by-election, at least three days before polling day."

3. Amendment of section 21 of principal Act.

Section 21 of the principal Act is amended by substituting for the word "registrar" wherever it appears in that section, the words "district election administrator".

4. Amendment of section 22 of principal Act.

Section 22 of the principal Act is amended—

- (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) by substituting for the word "constituency" the word "district";
 - (ii) by substituting for "assistant registrar" in paragraph (a) the words "assistant district election administrator"; and
- (b) in subsection (3), by substituting for the words "assistant registrar" the words "assistant district election administrator".

5. Amendment of section 23 of principal Act.

Section 23 of the principal Act is amended by substituting for the word “registrars” or “district registrar” wherever the words appear in that section, the words “district election administrators” or “assistant district election administrator”, respectively.

6. Amendment of section 27 of principal Act.

Date of Commencement: 27th July, 2020.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. Amendment of the Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2005.

The Political Parties and Organisations Act, 2005, in this Act referred to as the principal Act is amended by substituting for section 19 the following—

“19. Code of Conduct for Political Parties and Organisations.
A political party or organisation, a leader, official, candidate, member, agent or representative of a political party or organisation shall adhere to the Code of Conduct for Political Parties and Organisations set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Act.”

2. Insertion of Fourth Schedule to principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after the Third Schedule, the following Schedule—

“Fourth Schedule

Section 19

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR POLITICAL PARTIES AND ORGANISATIONS

1. Objective of code of conduct.

The objective of this code is to prescribe a code of conduct for political parties and organisations for purposes of promoting—

- (a) tolerance, peaceful co-existence and democratic principles between and among different political parties, organisations and their members and supporters;
- (b) free and fair political campaigns and open public debates;
- (c) substantive contributions by parties to governance through periodic elections of office bearers, internal democracy and policy development;
- (d) fair and proper conduct of leaders and members of political parties and organisations; and
- (e) compliance by political parties and organisations, their members and supporters, with all the laws relating to elections.

2. Principles of code of conduct.

(1) The code of conduct is based on the following principles—

- (a) the legitimacy of a government chosen through regular free and fair elections; and

- (b) the creation of an enabling environment which ensures that citizens are informed of the policies and qualities of all political parties and candidates and to ensure that voters are able to make an informed choice.

(2) The code of conduct is the ethical standard of conduct for political parties and organisations.

3. Role of political party or organisation.

Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) respect, uphold and defend the constitution, rules and regulations of its political party or political organisation developed and agreed upon in accordance with this code of conduct;
- (b) have a national character and promote inclusiveness, patriotism and national unity;
- (c) respect, uphold and promote democratic values and principles, performing inclusive participation of members of the political party or political organisation and accountable representation in governance for the development of the country;
- (d) work with the Electoral Commission to promote transparency, impartiality and confidence in the electoral processes;
- (e) obey any lawful directive, instruction or order of the Electoral Commission;
- (f) establish and maintain effective lines of communication with—
 - (i) the Electoral Commission;
 - (ii) the National Consultative Forum; and
 - (iii) other registered political parties and organisations;

- (g) cooperate in any lawful investigation by the Electoral Commission; and
- (h) respect, uphold and promote good governance, integrity, respect, tolerance, peaceful co-existence, transparency and accountability.

4. Compliance with the code.

(1) All political parties and organisations, in collaboration with the Electoral Commission and other relevant agencies shall ensure that this code of conduct is well publicised and fully observed by its members and supporters.

(2) For purposes of subparagraph (1), a political party or organisation shall—

- (a) prohibit its leaders, officials, candidates, agents and members from infringing the provisions of this code;
- (b) discourage any type of conduct by its supporters which would, if undertaken by a political party official, candidate or member, be in breach of this code; and
- (c) promote, uphold and support efforts towards voter education on a peaceful, free and fair electoral process.

5. Rule of law.

(1) A political party or organisation shall ensure that its leaders, members and supporters and candidates comply with this Act and with all laws relating to elections and the conduct of political parties and organisations, and shall not individually or collectively, undermine, flout, disrespect or circumvent the law.

(2) A political party or organisation shall—

- (a) make provision for equal opportunity for qualified persons to participate in elections and election activities within their governing constitution, rules or regulations; and

- (b) practice internal party democracy by adhering to the provisions of its party constitution and guidelines.

(3) A political party or organisation shall ensure the promotion of active and equal participation of women, youth and persons with disabilities and other vulnerable groups in all political activities and in the electoral processes.

6. Abuse of position.

(1) A political party or organisation shall not—

- (a) abuse a position of power, privilege or influence for a political purpose, by offering a reward, threatening a penalty, or by any other means; or
- (b) use Government, local government or other public resources for campaign purposes, subject to existing laws.

(2) In this paragraph, “a position of power, privilege or influence” includes a position of parental, religious, patriarchal, governmental, police, military or traditional authority.

7. Intimidation and violence.

(1) A political party or organisation is prohibited from using intimidation or violence, in any form.

(2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1), a political party or organisation shall not—

- (a) engage in or encourage violence by its members, supporters or other persons affiliated to it;
- (b) engage in or encourage any kind of intimidation of any member or supporter of, or other person affiliated to, any other political party or organisation;
- (c) advocate for hatred, ethnic incitement, racial incitement, vilification of others or incitement to cause harm;

- (d) obstruct, disrupt, break-up or in any other way interfere with a meeting, rally or demonstration of another political party or organisation; or
- (e) establish or maintain a para-military force, militia or similar organisation or have any links with such an organisation.

(3) Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) issue guidelines, expressly forbidding its officials, candidates, members and supporters from intimidating any person at any time;
- (b) campaign against violence or threats of violence, and against any acts of vandalism or public disorder committed or threatened by their officials, candidates, members or supporters;
- (c) promote national interest, peace and security irrespective of political ideology; and
- (d) respect other political parties or organisations, persons, and their property.

8. Influence peddling.

A political party or organisation shall not—

- (a) engage in influence peddling, bribery or any other form of corruption; or
- (b) accept or use public resources, other than those allocated to the political party.

9. Language.

(1) A member of a political party or organisation shall not use language that—

- (a) is inflammatory or defamatory; or

- (b) threatens or incites violence in any form against any person or group of persons.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, a political party or organisation shall not—

- (a) use abusive, insulting or demeaning language that provokes or is likely to provoke violence or intimidation of a member, representative or agent of a political party or organisation; or
- (b) issue pamphlets, newsletters or posters containing language or material that threatens or incites violence.

10. Relationship between political parties and organisations and the Electoral Commission.

Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) recognise the authority of the Electoral Commission in the conduct of elections;
- (b) bring to the attention of the Electoral Commission any areas where the impartiality of the Electoral Commission may be called into question;
- (c) abide by any lawful direction, instruction or order of the Electoral Commission, issued by a member, employee or officer of the Electoral Commission, or any election official authorised by the Electoral Commission;
- (d) allow the access of members, employees and officers of the Electoral Commission to public meetings, demonstrations, rallies or other public political events of the political party or organisation during elections;
- (e) cooperate with the Electoral Commission in investigating any matter under this Act or any allegation of electoral malpractice;

(f) take all reasonable steps to ensure—

- (i) the safety of members, employees and officers of the Electoral Commission in the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty conferred on or assigned to the Electoral Commission under any electoral law;
- (ii) that persons referred to in subparagraph (i) are not subjected to insult, danger or threat by representatives, agents, members or supporters of a political party or organisation; and
- (iii) that representatives or agents of the political party or organisation or candidate attend meetings of the National Liaison Committee or other fora convened by the Electoral Commission or its agents.

11. Relationship between political parties or organisations and the media.

Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) recognise and respect the role of the media before, during and after an election;
- (b) allow access by members of the media to public political meetings, marches, demonstrations and rallies; and
- (c) take all reasonable steps to ensure that members of the media are not subjected to harassment, intimidation, danger, threat or physical assault by their representatives or agents.

12. Relationship between political parties or organisations and the Uganda Police Force.

(1) A political party or organisation shall assist the Uganda Police Force in apprehending its members who attempt to, or violate the provisions of any law relating to elections and political activities.

(2) Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) recognise the constitutional functions of the Uganda Police Force;
- (b) cooperate with the Uganda Police Force in exercise of its constitutional functions under article 212 of the Constitution;
- (c) give effect to any lawful direction, instruction or order of the Uganda Police Force; and
- (d) allow any police officer to have access to a public meeting, march, demonstration, rally or other public political event of the political party or organisation for purposes of keeping law and order.

13. Conduct during campaigns.

(1) Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) respect the right and freedom of all other political parties or organisations or candidates to campaign and to disseminate their political ideas and principles without fear;
- (b) conduct itself in a manner that respects the rights of other parties, and respects the rights of voters and other members of the community; and
- (c) respect the freedom of the press.

(2) A political party or organisation shall not—

- (a) disrupt, destroy or frustrate the campaign efforts of another political party or organisation or candidate;
- (b) prevent the distribution of election campaign materials, or the display of posters of other political parties or organisation or candidate;

- (c) deface or destroy the posters of another political party or candidate;
- (d) imitate the symbols of another political party or organisation;
- (e) prevent any other political party, organisation or candidate from holding rallies, meetings, marches or demonstrations; or
- (f) hinder reasonable freedom of access by another political party, organisation or candidate to potential voters for purposes of voter education, collecting signatures, recruiting members, raising funds or canvassing support for a candidate or political party or organisation.

(3) Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) organise and conduct its election campaign in a manner that promotes a hospitable and peaceful atmosphere during the campaign period, the polling process, and the post-election period; and
- (b) act with a sense of responsibility and dignity befitting the status of the political party or organisation.

(4) A political party or organisation shall take necessary steps to coordinate its campaign activities in such a way as to avoid holding rallies, meetings, marches or demonstrations close to one another at the same time.

(5) A political party or organisation shall not protect or exercise undue influence for the release of persons arrested for carrying prohibited material, in violation of any electoral law, regulations or guidelines issued by the Electoral Commission.

14. Conduct during the polling process.

(1) Every political party, organisation or candidate shall—

(a) cooperate with election officials in order to ensure—

(i) peaceful and orderly polling;

(ii) freedom for voters to exercise their right to vote without being subjected to any annoyance, coercion or obstruction;

(b) respect and cooperate with accredited election observers; and

(c) respect the secrecy of the voting.

(2) A political party, organisation or candidate shall not—

(a) procure votes by forcible occupation of polling stations or through illegal activities in and around the polling stations; or

(b) interfere with the duties of election officials or disturb the electoral process.

(3) A political party or organisation shall ensure that its polling agents and officials are trained to adequately represent the party or organisation to ensure that the electoral process is free and fair.

(4) A political party or organisation shall cooperate with the Uganda Police Force and any other law enforcement agency to ensure the safety and security of election materials, election officials, party agents and the electorate on polling day.

15. Role of election monitors and observers.

(1) Every political party or organisation shall—

- (a) recognise and respect the role of election monitors and observers before, during and after an election;
- (b) allow access by election monitors and observers to public political meetings, demonstrations, rallies and any other election related events; and
- (c) take all reasonable steps to ensure that election monitors and observers are not subject to harassment, intimidation, danger or threat of physical assault by any of their representatives, agents or supporters.

(2) For the purposes of this code, an election observer is a person accredited by the Electoral Commission to observe an election.

16. National Consultative Forum to enforce code.

(1) The National Consultative Forum established by section 20 of the Act, shall be responsible for implementing and enforcing this code.

(2) Where there is a breach of any of the provisions of this code, the aggrieved political party or organisation or person shall, in writing, report the breach to the National Consultative Forum.

(3) A political party or organisation shall cooperate with the National Consultative Forum on matters pertaining to the enforcement of this code.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, the National Consultative Forum may, on its own motion inquire into or investigate any breach of this code.

(5) In the case of a breach of this code where there is no specific punishment, the National Consultative Forum may impose any of the following sanctions—

- (a) a caution;
 - (b) a warning accompanied with a requirement to comply with the code within thirty days;
 - (c) make a recommendation to the respective political party or organisation to take disciplinary action against a member, agent or representative of a political party or organisation if the breach was as a result of the actions of a member, agent or representative of a political party or organisation, within thirty days; or
 - (d) make a recommendation to the Electoral Commission to exercise its powers under section 21 of the Act to apply to the High Court for an order winding up the political party or organisation.
- (6) A political party or organisation shall explore alternative dispute resolution mechanisms in resolving disputes.”
